(3) The interpretation of the First Schedule shall be governed by the following principles -

(a) the titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters are provided for ease of reference only; and for legal purposes classification shall be determined according to the terms of the heading and tariff descriptions and any relative section or chapter notes and, where the headings or notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions of this subsection;

(b) (i) a reference in a tariff description to an article shall be taken to include a reference to that article whether incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as presented, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article; and such a reference shall also be deemed to include a reference to that article complete or finished, or falling to be classified as complete or finished by virtue of this subsection, whether imported, unassembled or disassembled; (ii) where parts of an article are separately imported the Commissioner may apply subparagraph (i) to those parts;

(iii) a reference in a tariff description to a material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances, and any reference to goods of a given material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to goods consisting wholly or partly of such material or substance; however classification of goods consisting of more than one material or substance shall be according to paragraph (c);

(c) where, by application of paragraph (b) (iii) or for any other reason, goods are prima facie classifiable under two or more tariff descriptions, classification shall be effected as follows -

(i) the tariff description which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to tariff descriptions providing a more general description; however where two or more tariff descriptions each refer to part only of the materials or substances contained in mixed or composite goods or to part only of the items in a set put up for retail sale those tariff descriptions are to be regarded as equally specific in relation to those goods even if one of them gives a more complete or precise description of the goods;

(ii) mixtures and composite goods consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and goods put up in sets for retail sale, which cannot be classified by reference to subparagraph (i), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, in so far as this criterion is applicable;

(iii) where goods cannot be classified by subparagraph (i) or (ii) they shall be classified under the heading which occurs last among those which equally merit consideration;

(d) where goods cannot be classified in the manner provided by paragraph (a),(b) or (c) they shall be classified under the tariff description appropriate to the goods to which they are most akin;

(e) (i) camera cases, instrument cases, gun cases drawing instrument cases, necklace cases and similar containers specially shaped or fitted to contain a specific article, suitable for long-term use and imported with the articles for which they are intended, shall be classified with such articles when of a kind normally sold therewith but this paragraph does not apply to containers which give the whole its essential character;

(ii) subject to the provisions of subparagraph (i), packing materials for goods therein shall be classified with the goods if they are of a kind normally used for packing such goods but this subparagraph is not applicable when such packing materials or packing containers are clearly suitable for repetitive use;

(f) for legal purposes, the classification of goods in the tariff description of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of those tariff descriptions and any chapter notes relative to those tariff descriptions and, mutatis mutandis, according to this subsection, on the understanding that only the tariff descriptions at the same level are comparable, and for the purposes of this subsection the relative section and chapter notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires;

(g) the classification of goods within a tariff description shall have regard to the wording of the heading;

(h) where in any tariff description parts of articles are classified with those articles, mention of any of the articles in a tariff description of that heading shall be deemed to include a mention of parts of those articles, except in so far as the contrary intention appears from the wording of the tariff description;

(i) where goods are classified according to their use either by way of general description of their use or by reference to the use intended on importation or clearance through customs, the conditions of use shall not be taken to be fulfilled unless at the time of importation or clearance the intended direct use is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner;

(j) where an alternative rate of duty is shown, the rate chargeable is that which results in the higher duty charge.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of the First Schedule with respect to-

(a) tariff description and the classification of goods;

(b) units of quantities and the rules of interpretation of that Schedule set out in subsection (3) shall apply to the Second, Fourth and Fifth Schedules.

(b) where the owners or agents of an aircraft or vessel fail to meet the cost of reshipment or destruction of any goods condemned as aforesaid, the operator of the transit shed shall bear the cost.

(2) The owner or agent of an aircraft or vessel who fails to account for any of the goods deemed to be in the importing aircraft or vessel under subsection (1) to the satisfaction of the proper officer, within such period as may be prescribed or such further period as the proper officer may allow, shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) The owner of an aircraft or a vessel, or as the case may be, of a dry port or inland transit shed who fails to meet the cost of reshipment or destruction of any condemned goods pursuant to subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

reported to be unloaded. 23. Where goods reported for discharge at a port or place specially allowed by the proper officer are not duly unloaded and deposited in a transit shed or a customs area, then the master or agent of the aircraft or vessel shall, unless he explains to the satisfaction of the proper officer, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to pay the duty due thereon.

Master of wreck, etc., to report. 24. (1) When an aircraft or vessel is lost or wrecked or is compelled to land or bring to within Kenya owing to accident, stress of weather or other unavoidable cause, the master or agent of the aircraft or vessel shall with all reasonable speed make report of the aircraft or vessel and of its cargo and stores to the nearest officer or administrative officer.

(2) Where an aircraft or vessel is found abandoned within Kenya then, unless the master or agent thereof satisfies the Commissioner that all the provisions of this Act in relation to the aircraft or vessel and its cargo and stores have been complied with, the aircraft or vessel and its cargo and stores shall be liable to forfeiture.

(3) A master or agent who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Arrival Overland

Arrival overland. 25.(1) A person, whether or not in charge of a vehicle and whether or not the vehicle may be conveying goods which are dutiable, arriving overland at a frontier of Kenya from a place outside Kenya shall not, except where otherwise permitted by the proper officer, enter Kenya at any place other than at a port or place appointed under section 9 and shall before unloading or disposing of any vehicle or goods -

(a) report his arrival to the officer stationed at the port nearest to the point at which he crossed the frontier;

(b) furnish on the prescribed form such information as may be required concerning any vehicle and goods;

(c) make and subscribe a declaration as to the truth of all particulars contained in the form;

(d) fully and immediately answer all relevant questions put to him by the proper officer;

(e) produce all consignment notes or other relevant documents demanded of him by the proper officer;

(f) save as otherwise provided in this Act make due entry of the vehicle and goods.

(2) No vehicle or goods to which this section applies shall be removed from a customs area until after due entry thereof has been made or until permission for removal has been granted by the proper officer.

(3) The Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as may be specified, exempt any person or class of persons from the provisions of this section.

(4) A person who contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Unloading, Entry, Removal, Examination, and Delivery of Cargo

Unloading, etc. 26.(1) Subject to this Act, save with the written permission of the proper officer and subject to such conditions as he may impose -

(a) no goods shall be unloaded from an aircraft or vessel arriving from a foreign port or place unless the goods have first been duly entered;

(b) no goods shall be unloaded or removed from an aircraft or vessel arriving from a foreign port or place at any time whatsoever except as prescribed by the Commissioner;

(c) no goods shall be unloaded from an aircraft or vessel arriving from a foreign port or place except at an approved place of unloading or at a sufferance wharf :

Provided that -

(i) goods may be unloaded from the aircraft or vessel into another vessel in order to be landed; and in that case the goods shall be taken directly to and landed without delay at an approved place of unloading or at a sufferance wharf;

(ii) with the permission of the proper officer and subject to such conditions as he may impose, goods reported for re-exportation by another aircraft or vessel may be unloaded into another aircraft or vessel pending re-exportation;

(d) all goods which have been unloaded or landed shall be conveyed to a customs area and, if the proper officer so requires, shall be deposited in a transit shed or in a customs warehouse:

Provided that goods which the proper officer may consider to be unsuited for storage in a transit shed or a customs warehouse shall be deposited in such other place as the proper officer may direct, and thereupon that other place shall, for the purpose of deposit, be deemed to be a transit shed;

(e) no goods shall be removed from any part of a customs area or from a transit shed or a customs warehouse unless those goods have first been duly reported and entered and authority for their removal or delivery has been given by the proper officer:

Provided that the proper officer may, if he considers it necessary, direct the agent of an aircraft or vessel from which goods have been landed into a transit shed or customs warehouse to remove those goods to some other place, which other place shall for the purpose be deemed to be a transit shed, selected by the proper officer and, if the agent fails to remove the goods when called upon, the proper officer may have them removed at the risk and expense of the agent;

(f) where any goods are deposited in a transit shed, in a customs warehouse or in any place as directed by the proper officer the customs shall not be liable to any charges arising therefrom;

(g) all goods entered for warehousing shall, after the owner thereof has entered into a bond for their warehousing, be removed by the importer by such routes, in such manner, and within such time, as the proper officer may direct to the warehouse for which they were entered and shall be delivered into the custody of the person in charge of the warehouse.

(2) A person who contravenes this section, or any of the conditions which may have been imposed by, or any of the directions which may have been given by, the proper officer shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Entry of cargo. 27.(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the whole of the cargo of an aircraft or vessel which is unloaded or to be unloaded shall be entered by the owner within such period after the commencement of discharge as may be prescribed, or such further period as may be allowed by the proper officer, either for -

- (a) home use;
- (b) warehousing;
- (c) transshipment; or
- (d) transit.

(2) Where an entry is delivered to the proper officer, the owner shall furnish therewith full particulars supported by documentary evidence of the goods referred to in the entry.

(3) Entries for goods to be unloaded may be delivered to the proper officer for checking before the arrival at the port of discharge of the aircraft or vessel in which the goods are imported; and in that case the Commissioner may permit goods to be entered before the arrival of the aircraft or vessel.

(4) Where goods remain unentered at the expiration of the prescribed period, or of such further period as may have been allowed by the proper officer, then the goods shall, if the proper officer so requires, be removed by, or at the expense of, the agent of the aircraft or vessel in which the goods were imported to a customs warehouse.

(5) Where goods entered for transit or transshipment under subsection (1) are not removed from the customs area within a period of thirty days from the date of entry, such goods shall be removed at the expense of the owner to a customs warehouse.

Provided that where goods are entered before arrival at the port of discharge of the aircraft or vessel under subsection (3), the thirty days period shall run from the date the aircraft or vessel commences discharge.

Surplus stores 28. The surplus stores of an aircraft or vessel may, with the permission of the proper officer, be entered for home use or for warehousing.

Provisions relating to mail, personal baggage, etc. 29.(1) Notwithstanding sections 26 and 27 -

(a) mail bags and postal articles in the course of transmission by post may be unloaded and delivered to an officer of the Post Office without entry;

(b) goods which are the bona fide personal baggage of the passengers or members of the crew of an aircraft or vessel may, subject to the provisions of any regulations, be unloaded and delivered to those persons without entry;

(c) The proper officer may permit the unloading and delivery to the owner of bullion, currency notes, coin or perishable goods without entry, subject to security being given by the owner to furnish the necessary entry within forty-eight hours of the time of delivery.

(2) An owner who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) (c) shall be guilty of an offence.

Entry in absence of documents. 30. (1) If the owner of goods is, by reason of the absence of any, or of any sufficient, documents or information concerning them, unable to furnish full particulars of those goods, he shall make and subscribe a declaration on the prescribed form to that effect, and thereupon the proper officer may permit the owner to examine the goods in his presence.

(2) Upon examination having been made the proper officer may, subject to section 31, permit the owner to enter the goods for home use, or for warehousing, if he is satisfied that the description of the goods for tariff and statistical purposes is correctly made in the entry, and also -

(a) in the case of goods liable to duty ad valorem, that the value declared on the entry is approximately correct; and

(b) in the case of goods liable to duty according to weight, quantity, number, measurement or strength, that the weight, quantity, number, measurement or strength declared on the entry is correct.

(3) Where the proper officer has permitted entry to be made under subsection (2), the delivery of the goods may accordingly be made, but the proper officer may, in the case of goods liable to duty ad valorem, retain samples of the goods for such period up to the passing of perfect entry as he may think fit.

(4) Where the owner of any goods referred to in the declaration does not make, or is not permitted to make entry thereof in accordance with this section, then the proper officer shall cause the goods referred to in the declaration to be deposited in a customs warehouse.

Provisions relating to goods liable to duty ad valorem, then the entry shall be deemed to be a goods liable provisional entry.

s. 3

31. (1) Where goods entered in accordance with section 30 are goods liable to duty ad valorem, then the entry shall be deemed to be a goods liable provisional entry.

(2) Where any such goods are provisionally entered for home use, then the proper officer may require the owner to deposit, in addition to the amount estimated as the duty for the purpose of making the provisional entry, such further sum as the proper officer may think fit; and the estimated duty and further sum shall be held on deposit and shall be forfeited unless the owner within three months, or such further period as may be allowed by the proper officer, of the provisional entry produces to the proper officer satisfactory evidence of the value of the goods and makes perfect entry thereof.

(3) Where the owner makes perfect entry in accordance with subsection (2), then the owner shall subtract from the amount held on deposit under that subsection, the full amount of duty payable in respect of the goods and shall refund the difference to the owner:

Provided that where the full amount of duty payable exceeds the amount deposited, the proper officer shall require the owner to pay an additional amount of duty equal to the difference between the amount of duty payable and the amount deposited.

Delivery from customs area in special circumstances. 32. (1) The proper officer may, subject to such conditions as he may impose and to the giving of such security as he may think appropriate for the due return thereof or the payment of the duties thereon, permit goods to be removed from a transit shed or customs area without payment of the duty for such purpose, for such period, and in such quantities, as he may think fit.

(2) A person who contravenes any conditions imposed under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Re-packing, etc., in customs area, etc. 33. The proper officer may permit goods to be repacked, skipped, bulked, sorted, lotted or packed on an approved place of unloading, or on a sufferance wharf, or in a transit shed, or in a customs area.

Goods deposited in a 34. (1) Where goods which are deposited in a customs warehouse are not removed within twenty-one days after deposit, then, the proper officer of 1999, s. 5 9 (2) Subject to subsections (3A) and (4) where goods are deemed to be of 2000, s. 4, abandoned under subsection (1), then, such goods, whether restricted, or 15 of 2003, s. not shall be sold by public auction after twenty-one days notice of sale 4., 4 of 2004, s. has been given:

Provided that any such goods-

(i) which are of a perishable nature or are animals may, with the authority of the Commissioner, be sold without notice, either by public auction or private treaty, at any time after deposit in the customs warehouse;

(ii) which are restricted under any written law in force in Kenya may, with the authority of the Commissioner and subject to subsection (8), be sold only to persons licensed to deal in such goods or in similar goods;

(iii) which are imported by the Government, a diplomatic nation, a state corporation, an aid agency or by the Government or a state corporation of a neighboring country, shall not be sold except with the prior written approval of the Commissioner.

(iv) any such goods which are prohibited under the provisions of any written law for the time being in force in Kenya shall not be sold and shall be re-exported or destroyed within thirty days of the date the goods are declared prohibited imports.

(3) Every notice given under subsections (1) and (2) shall be advertised in such prominent manner as the Commissioner may see fit.

(3A) Where goods are not sold at public auction held under subsection (2), they may be sold at a subsequent auction without an additional notice of sale being given.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), the Commissioner may, upon application by the owner, made at least seven days before the date of sale, if satisfied that failure to remove the goods was due to circumstances beyond the control of the owner, allow the goods to be withdrawn from the auction house.

(5) Goods deposited in a customs warehouse shall be subject to such rent and other charges as may be prescribed.

(6) Where goods are sold under this section, the proceeds thereof shall be applied in the order set out below in the discharge of -

- (a) the duties, if any;
- (b) the expenses of removal and sale;
- (c) the rent and charges due to the customs; and
- (d) the port charges;
- (e) the freight charges, if any.

(7) Where after the proceeds of sale have been applied in accordance with subsection (6) there is a balance, such balance shall be paid into the customs and excise revenue.

(8) Where goods fail to be sold in accordance with this section but are in the opinion of the Commissioner without value, or cannot be sold for any other reason, then they may be destroyed or disposed of in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

(9) An officer having the custody of goods in a customs warehouse, or place of deposit deemed to be a customs warehouse, may refuse delivery therefrom until he is satisfied that all duties, expenses, rent, freight and other charges due in respect of those goods have been paid.

Goods deemed to be in a customs warehouse. 35. (1) Where under this Act goods are required to be deposited in a customs warehouse, the proper officer may decide that it is undesirable or inconvenient to deposit the goods in a customs warehouse and direct that the goods shall be deposited in some other place; and thereupon the goods shall for all purposes be deemed to have been deposited in a customs warehouse as from the time that they are required to be so deposited.

(2) Where goods are deemed to have been deposited in a customs warehouse then the goods shall, in addition to the rent and other charges to which they are liable under section 34, be chargeable with such expenses incurred in the securing, guarding and removing of them as the proper officer may consider reasonable; and neither the Commissioner nor an officer shall be liable for the loss of or damage to the goods which may be occasioned by reason of their being so deposited and dealt with.

PART IV - WAREHOUSING OF GOODS

Provisions Relating to Bonded Warehouses

Dutiable goods may be warehoused. 36. (1) Subject to any regulations, goods liable to duty may on first importation be warehoused without payment of duty in a Government warehouse or a bonded warehouse licensed by the Commissioner.

(2) On, or as soon as practicable after, the landing of goods to be warehoused, the proper officer shall take a particular account of the goods and shall enter the account in a book; and the account shall, subject to sections 41 and 47, be that upon which the duties in respect of the goods shall be ascertained and paid.

Procedure on warehousing. 37. (1) Where goods entered to be warehoused are delivered into the custody of the person in charge of a warehouse, the proper officer shall take a particular account of the goods, whether or not an account thereof has been previously taken.

(2) The proper officer shall, in taking an account, enter in the book for that purpose the name of the aircraft or vessel or the registered number of the vehicle, as the case may be, in which the goods were imported, or, in the case of postal articles, the parcel post reference, the name of the owner of the goods, the number of packages, the mark and number of each package, and the value and particulars of the goods.

(3) After the account has been taken and the goods deposited in the warehouse in accordance with the direction of the proper officer, the officer shall certify at the foot of the account that the entry and warehousing of the goods is complete; and the goods shall from that time be considered goods duly warehoused.

(4) Subject to section 39, all goods entered to be warehoused shall be removed to the warehouse for which they were entered and deposited therein within seven days from the date of release, or within such further period as the Commissioner may allow for bonded warehouses situated away from the port of importation.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Removal to warehouse of goods entered therefor. 38. (1) Where goods entered to be warehoused are not duly warehoused by the owner, the proper officer may cause them to be removed to the warehouse for which they were entered.

(2) Where goods are so removed to a bonded warehouse the warehouse keeper shall pay the cost of the removal of the goods and shall have a lien on the goods for the cost.

Entry of 39.(1) Goods which have been warehoused may be entered either for - warehoused goods.

(a) home use;

(b) exportation;

(c) removal to another warehouse;

(d) use as stores for aircraft or vessels; or

(e) re-warehousing.

(2) Where goods have been entered for warehousing they may, before they are actually warehoused, be entered for home use, for exportation, for removal to another warehouse, or for use as stores for aircraft or vessels; and in that case the goods shall be deemed to have been so warehoused and may be delivered for home use, for exportation, for removal to another warehouse, or for use as stores for aircraft or vessels, as the case may be, as if they had been actually so warehoused.

Operations in a 40.(1) Where goods are warehoused, the commissioner may, subject to warehouse. 14 such conditions as he may impose-
of 1982, s.3, 9
of 1993, s.5.

(a) permit the goods to be repacked, skipped, bulked, sorted, lotted or parked therein;

(b) permit samples of the goods to be taken by the owner;

(c) permit the name of the owner of the goods in the account taken under section 36 to be changed if application therefore is made in the prescribed form and signed by both the owner and the intended owner;

(d) permit the assembly or manufacture in the warehouse of any article consisting wholly or partly of those goods; and for that purpose the Commissioner may permit the receipt in a warehouse of duty free or locally produced articles required as components of the article to be so assembled or manufactured therein:

Provided that-

(i) where the finished article is entered for home use, duty shall be charged on the goods forming part thereof according to the first account taken upon the warehousing of the goods except in the case of imparted crude petroleum or partly refined petroleum oils which are warehoused

in a refinery, in which case duty shall be charged on the goods produced from crude petroleum or partly refined petroleum oils delivered from the refinery for home use and shall be the same as that which would be payable on the importation of similar goods; and

(ii) in respect of blended lubricating oils, duty shall be charged on the resultant volume of the blend at the time of entry for home use and shall be the same as that which would be payable on the importation of similar goods.

(2) A person who contravenes any conditions which may be imposed by the Commissioner under this section shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Re-gauging in re-valuation. 41. The proper officer may, either on the direction of the Commissioner or on the application and at the expense of the owner, re-gauge, re-measure, re-weigh, examine or take stock of any warehoused goods, and in either case the duty on the goods shall be payable according to the result, unless the proper officer considers that any loss or deterioration is excessive or has been willfully or negligently caused, in either of which events the duty shall, subject to such reduction, if any, as the Commissioner may allow, be payable according to the original account.

Delivery from warehouse in special circumstances. 42. (1) The Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as he may impose and to the giving of such security as he may think appropriate for the due return thereof or the payment of duties thereon, permit goods to be removed from a warehouse without payment of duty for such purpose, for such period, and in such quantities, as he may think fit.

(2) A person who contravenes any conditions imposed under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Removal to another warehouse or bonded factory. 43.(1) Where warehoused goods are to be removed to another warehouse or a bonded factory, then the proper officer -
(a) shall require owner of the goods to deliver an entry thereof in such form and manner as the proper officer may direct;

(b) shall require the owner to give security in such amount, not being less than the duty chargeable on the goods, as the proper officer may think fit for the due arrival and re-warehousing of the goods within such time as the proper officer may consider appropriate; and

(c) shall transmit to the proper officer of the place where the goods are to be re-warehoused an account containing the particulars of the goods.

(2) Security given under this section shall not be discharged unless-

(a) the conditions attaching thereto have been satisfied; or

(b) the full duty payable on the goods has been paid in accordance with this Act; or

(c) the goods are otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the proper officer, and any duties due in respect of any deficiency in the goods not so accounted for have been paid.

(3) on the arrival of the goods at the other warehouse or bonded factory, a particular account of them shall be taken in accordance with section 37 or section 58F, as the case may be.

Warehoused goods may be delivered as stores. 44.(1) Where warehoused goods have been entered for use as stores for an aircraft or vessel, they may be delivered for that purpose to a vessel or aircraft proceeding to a foreign port or place:

Provided that warehoused goods shall not be entered for use as stores for a vessel of less than ten tons register or be delivered for that purpose.

(2) Where warehoused goods are delivered for the purpose of being used as stores for an aircraft or vessel, they shall forthwith be put on board the aircraft or vessel for which they are entered.

(3) Where warehoused goods are dealt with contrary to this section, the owner of the goods shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Abandonment, etc., of warehoused goods. 45.(1) The Commissioner may subject to such conditions as he may impose-

(a) permit the owner of warehoused goods to abandon the goods to the customs;

(b) permit the owner of warehoused goods which in, the opinion of the proper officer, are worthless or have become damaged, or are surplus, by reason of any operations in connection therewith carried out under section 40, to destroy the goods, and in either case the duty on the goods shall be remitted.

(2) Where under subsection (1) warehoused goods are -

(a) abandoned to the customs, then the goods shall be disposed of in the manner provided in section 34:

Provided that, where the goods are destroyed or disposed of in some manner other than sale, the destruction or disposal shall be at the expense of the owner;

(b) permitted to be destroyed, and the goods were warehoused in a Government warehouse, then the owner of the goods shall nevertheless be liable to pay to the proper officer the rent and other charges due on the goods.

Abandonment, etc., of warehoused goods. 45.(1) The Commissioner may subject to such conditions as he may impose-

(a) permit the owner of warehoused goods to abandon the goods to the customs;

(b) permit the owner of warehoused goods which in, the opinion of the proper officer, are worthless or have become damaged, or are surplus, by reason of any operations in connection therewith carried out under section 40, to destroy the goods, and in either case the duty on the goods shall be remitted.

(2) Where under subsection (1) warehoused goods are -

(a) abandoned to the customs, then the goods shall be disposed of in the manner provided in section 34:

Provided that, where the goods are destroyed or disposed of in some manner other than sale, the destruction or disposal shall be at the expense of the owner;

(b) permitted to be destroyed, and the goods were warehoused in a Government warehouse, then the owner of the goods shall nevertheless be liable to pay to the proper officer the rent and other charges due on the goods.

Period of warehousing of goods. 46.(1) All warehoused goods which have not been removed from a warehouse in accordance with this Act within six months of the date on which they were entered shall be entered for re-warehousing for further period of six months or such longer periods as the Commissioner may allow; but those goods shall not be re-warehoused more than once:

PART VII - DEPARTURE AND CLEARANCE OF AIRCRAFT AND VESSELS, AND DEPARTURE OVERLAND

Departure and Clearance of Aircraft and Vessels

Clearance required for departure to foreign port.

75.(1) No aircraft or vessel, whether laden or in ballast, shall depart from a port or place in Kenya to a foreign port or place unless a certificate of clearance has been granted in respect of the aircraft or vessel.

(2) The master or agent of a vessel or aircraft which departs from a port or place within Kenya in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Grant of clearance.

76.(1) The master or agent of an aircraft or vessel, whether laden or in ballast, proposing to depart to a foreign port or place shall apply to the proper officer for a certificate of clearance.

(2) Where application for a certificate of clearance is made, then the proper officer shall not grant the certificate of clearance until he is satisfied that all the provisions of this Act in relation to the aircraft or vessel, its cargo, stores, baggage, crew and passengers have been complied with:

Provided that the proper officer may, by reason of the provisions of any other law, refuse to grant the certificate of clearance notwithstanding that he may be satisfied that this Act has been complied with.

(3) Where the master or agent of an aircraft, or of a vessel of less than two hundred and fifty tons register, makes application for a certificate of clearance, then he shall at the same time -

(a) deliver to the proper officer an outward manifest on the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner;

(b) produce to the proper officer all documents which he may require relating to the aircraft or vessel and its cargo, stores, baggage, crew and passengers;

(c) answer all questions which the proper officer may ask relating to the aircraft or vessel and its cargo, stores, baggage, crew and passengers.

(4) Where the master or agent of a vessel of two hundred and fifty tons register or more makes application for a certificate of clearance then the proper officer may grant clearance subject to an undertaking by the master or agent to deliver to the proper officer, within twenty-four hours of the grant of the certificate of clearance, the outward manifest of the vessel in the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner, and to answer all questions which he may be asked relating to the vessel, its cargo, stores, baggage, crew and passengers.

(5) Where an aircraft or vessel proposes to depart to a foreign port in ballast, then the aircraft or vessel shall be cleared in ballast, that is to say, the words "in ballast" shall be written in those parts of the form relating to the aircraft or vessel which contain provisions for the particulars of its cargo; and for the purpose of this subsection, an aircraft or vessel shall be deemed to be in ballast when the aircraft or vessel carries, in addition to the crew and its stores, only passengers and their bona fide personal baggage.

(6) The proper officer may permit the master or agent of an aircraft or vessel to amend an obvious error in the outward manifest, or to supply an omission which, in the opinion of the proper officer, results from accident or inadvertence, by furnishing an amended or supplementary outward manifest in the prescribed manner.

(7) Where a certificate of clearance has been granted but the aircraft or vessel in respect of which it was granted has not left the limits of the port in which it was granted, then the proper officer may inform, either orally or in writing the master of the aircraft or vessel that the certificate of clearance has been cancelled and may require the return of the certificate, and thereupon the certificate shall be deemed never to have been granted.

(8) A master or agent who contravenes an undertaking given under subsection (4), or who refuses to return a certificate of clearance when so required to do under subsection (7), shall be guilty of an offence.

Clearance to be produced. 77.(1) The proper officer may board an aircraft or vessel in Kenya after clearance and require the master thereof to produce his certificate of clearance and to answer questions relating to the aircraft or vessel, its cargo, stores, baggage, crew and passengers.

(2) The master of an aircraft or vessel who fails to produce the certificate of clearance on demand shall be guilty of an offence.

Deficiency or surplus in cargo or stores. 78.(1) Where, on an aircraft or vessel being boarded by the proper officer, goods or stores which are not contained in the manifest of the aircraft or vessel are found on the aircraft or vessel, then the master thereof shall be guilty of an offence and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

(2) Where, on an aircraft or vessel being boarded by the proper officer, goods which were reported on the arrival of the aircraft or vessel as remaining on board for other ports in Kenya, or for re-exportation, or as stores, or which after arrival were put on board for removal under bond to, another port in Kenya, or for exportation or use as stores, are not on board, due allowance being made in the case of stores for goods which might fairly have been consumed or used, then the master of the aircraft or vessel shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) Where, on an aircraft or vessel being boarded by the proper officer after its return to Kenya from a voyage to a foreign port or place, goods which on the previous arrival of the aircraft or vessel were reported as stores or were then put on board as stores are not on board, due allowance being made for goods which might fairly have been consumed or used, the master of the aircraft or vessel shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings and in addition, the master shall be liable to pay the duty on the deficiency of the goods at the rate chargeable on the importation of similar goods.

Aircraft or vessels to bring to at boarding station. 79.(1) The master of an aircraft or vessel departing to a foreign port shall bring to at the boarding station for the purpose of disembarking any officer on the aircraft or vessel, or for any other purpose of this Act, or when required so to do by the proper officer.

(2) The Tribunal shall consist of a chairman and not less than four but not more than six members who shall be appointed by the Minister and who shall hold office for such period and upon such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.

(2A) The members of the Tribunal shall be entitled to receive such subsistence and traveling allowances as the Minister may determine.

(3) The quorum for a meeting of the Tribunal shall be the chairman and two other members.

(3A) where a dispute arises regarding any decision of the Commissioner or other person authorized by him or the proper officer, the person aggrieved thereby may, within thirty days from the day he is notified of the decision, appeal to the Tribunal.

(4) All matters before the Tribunal shall, in the event of a difference of opinion, be decided by the votes of the majority of the members thereof.

(5) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Tribunal under this section may appeal to the High Court within fourteen days.

Procedure for appeals. 9 of 2000, s.7, 6 of 2001, s. 6. Cap. 40. Cap. 21. 127F. (1) A person shall, before filing an appeal with the Tribunal, deposit with the Commissioner the full duty assessed under section 127B and in the case of any other dispute, makes all returns of duty, where applicable, as required and pays the amount of duty shown thereon as being due and payable.

(2) Any duty deposited with the Commissioner under subsection (1) shall, where the decision of the Tribunal of the High Court, as the case may be, is in favour of the aggrieved person, be refunded to such person, less the amount of duty which was not disputed.

(3) On hearing an appeal, the Tribunal shall have all the powers of a subordinate court of the first class to summon witnesses, to take evidence upon oath or affirmation and to call for the production of books and other documents.

(4) Where the Tribunal considers it desirable for the purpose of avoiding expense or delay or any other special reason to do so, it may receive evidence by affidavit and administer interrogations and require the person to whom the interrogations are administered to make a full and true reply to the interrogations within the time specified by the Tribunal.

(5) In its determination of any matter the Tribunal may take into consideration any evidence which it considers relevant to the subject of an appeal before it, notwithstanding that the evidence would not otherwise be admissible under the law relating to evidence.

(6) The Tribunal shall have the power to award the costs of any proceedings before it and to direct that such costs be taxed in accordance with any scale prescribed for suits in the High Court or to award a specified sum of costs.

(7) All summons, notices or other documents issued under the hand of the chairman of the Tribunal shall be deemed to be issued by the Tribunal.

(8) Any interested party may be represented before the Tribunal by an advocate or by any other person whom the Tribunal may, in its discretion, admit to be heard on behalf of the party.

(9) Any person summoned by the Tribunal to attend and give evidence or to produce any records, books of account, statements, or other documents, or required to answer interrogations and who without sufficient cause -

(a) refuses or fails to attend at the time and place mentioned in the summons served on him; or

(b) refuses or fails to answer fully and satisfactorily, to the best of his knowledge and belief all questions lawfully put to him by or with the concurrence of the Tribunal; or

(c) refuses or fail to produce any records, books of account, statements or other documents which are in his possession or under his control mentioned or referred to in any summons served on him, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or both.

(10) Where the Tribunal awards costs in any appeal, it shall, on application by the person to whom the costs are awarded, issue to him a certificate stating the amount of costs.

(11) Every certificate issued under subsection (10) may be filed in the High Court by the person in whose favour the costs have been awarded and upon being so filed shall be deemed to be a decree of the High Court and may be executed as such provided that an order for costs against the Government shall not be enforced save in the manner provided for by the Government Proceedings Act.

(12) The Chief Justice may make rules governing appeals and providing for the fees to be paid, the scale of costs of any such appeal, the procedure to be followed therein and the manner of notifying the parties thereto; and until such rules are made, and subject thereto, the provisions of the Civil Procedure Act shall apply as if the matter appealed against were a decree of a subordinate court exercising original jurisdiction.

(13) Where in any suit for the recovery of any tax, or other amounts payable under this Act, the court is satisfied that any party to the suit has appealed to the Tribunal, the court shall on such conditions as it may think fit stay the proceedings in the suit pending the determination of the appeal.

Excisable value of services. 7 of 2002, s.9. 127G. The value of services for the purposes of levying excise duty shall be the price paid or payable by the final consumer of such services in an open market transaction between buyer and seller independent of each other.

(a) is not marked or labelled with the net weight thereof; or

(b) is not commonly sold as containing, or as reputed to contain, a specific quantity or weight, and in either case, the owner of the goods is unable to satisfy the proper officer of the correct net weight thereof, the goods shall be liable to duty according to the gross weight of the package and its contents.

Duty computed on quantity in certain cases. 130. Where goods liable to a specific duty are imported in a package and on reputed the goods are intended for sale, or are normally sold retail, in that quantity in package, then, if the package -

(a) is marked or labelled as containing a specific quantity of the goods; or

(b) is commonly sold as containing, or as reputed to contain, a specific quantity of the goods, the package shall be deemed to contain not less than the specific quantity.

Commissioner may fix litre equivalent of other liquid measurement. 131. Where goods liable to duty according to liquid measurement are imported in a package and -

(a) the goods are intended for sale, or are normally sold, in that package; and

(b) the package is of a standard capacity according to a liquid measurement other than a liquid measurement based on fractions or multiples of a litre, then the Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that the package, having a capacity within such limits as may be specified in the notice, shall be deemed to contain such fractions or multiples of a litre as may be specified in the notice.

Allowance for tare. 132. For the purpose of the computation of the duty to which goods are liable, the Commissioner may fix the allowance for tare which may be granted and the conditions under which any such allowance may be granted.

Duty on packages in certain cases. 133. Where goods are imported or exported in a package which, in the opinion of the Commissioner -

(a) is not the normal or proper package for those goods; or

(b) is designed for use, subsequently to importation or exportation, other than as a package for any goods of the same or a similar nature, then, subject to any provision to the contrary in this Act, the package shall be liable to duty as if it were a separate article and shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a separate article.

Computation and Payment of Excise Duty on Spirits

Time of delivery determines rate of excise duty. 10 of 1986, s.7, 8 of 1996,s.5. 134.(1) The excise duty on spirits shall become due and shall be charged at the rate in force when the spirits liable to duty are delivered from the distillery or the distiller's warehouse; and the duty shall, subject to any remission or rebate thereof which may be granted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, be paid by the distiller, or secured to the satisfaction of the proper officer, on its becoming due.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where spirits are removed from a distillery or distiller's warehouse to a rectifier's warehouse, the duty shall become due and shall be charged at the rate in force when the spirits liable to the duty are delivered from the rectifier's or compounder's warehouse, and the duty shall be paid by the rectifier or compounder, or secured to the satisfaction of the proper officer, on its becoming due.

(3) The Commissioner may permit the payment of duty under subsections (1) and (2) to be deferred, to a date not later than the twentieth day of the month following that on which it became due.

Duty on spirits attenuation charge. 135.(1) In the case of a distillery where spirits are manufactured by distillation of a fermented liquor, the excise duty on spirits shall, in addition to being charged on the the spirits distilled, be chargeable in respect of each distillation period in accordance with the following provisions of this section.

(2) There shall be calculated the quantity of spirits at proof capable of being produced from any wort and wash made at the distillery on the assumption that from every one hundred litres of wort and wash one litre of spirits at proof will be produced for every five degrees of attenuation, that is to say for every five degrees of difference between the highest gravity of the wort and the lowest gravity of the wash before distillation, and so in proportion for any less number of litres of wort and wash or any less number of degrees of attenuation.

(3) The gravity of the wort or wash for the purposes of subsection (2) shall be taken as that declared by the distiller:

Provided that if either gravity is found by the proper officer before distillation, and the gravity so found is, in the case of wort, higher, or, in the case of wash, lower than that declared by the distiller, the gravity to be taken shall be that so found by the proper officer.

(4) There shall be ascertained the quantity computed at proof of the spirits and feints produced at the distillery after deducting the feints remaining at the end of the last preceding distillation period.

(5) If the quantity calculated under subsection (2) exceeds the quantity ascertained under subsection (4), the excise duty on spirits shall be charged and become payable immediately on that excess:

Provided that the Commissioner may make such allowance as in his opinion is reasonable from any charge under this section on proof to his satisfaction that the charge arises wholly or in part on account of the removal of wash for the separation of yeast.

(6) In this section, the expression "distillation period" means the period prescribed by regulations for the purpose of taking account of feints and spirits produced.

(2) Spirits shall be deemed to be at proof if the volume of the ethyl alcohol contained therein made up to the volume of the spirits with distilled water has a weight equal to that of twelve-thirteenths of a volume of distilled water equal to the volume of the spirits, the volume of each liquid being computed as at 10.55 degrees Centigrade.

(3) The expressions "degree of proof", "degree over proof" and "degree under proof" shall be construed by reference to a scale on which one hundred degrees denotes the strength of spirits at proof, and -

(a) one hundred and one degrees, or one degree over proof, denotes the strength of spirits which would be at proof if there were added thereto such quantity of distilled water as would increase by one per cent the volume of the spirits computed as at ten degrees Centigrade;

(b) ninety-nine degrees, or one degree, under proof, denotes the strength of spirits which would be at proof if there were removed therefrom such quantity of distilled water as would reduce by one per cent the volume of the spirits computed as at ten degrees Centigrade, and so in proportion for any other number of degrees.

(4) The equivalent at proof of spirits not at proof shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be their volume -

(a) multiplied by the number of degrees of proof representing their strength; and

(b) divided by one hundred.

(5) The Commissioner may make regulations prescribing the means to be used for ascertaining for any purpose the strength, weight or volume of spirits, and any such regulations may provide that in ascertaining for any purpose the strength of spirits any substance contained therein which is not ethyl alcohol or distilled water may be treated as if it were, and different regulations may be made for different purposes.

(6) This section shall apply to denatured spirits and fermented liquor as it applies to spirits.

Excise stamps 136A. Every bottle or other container of wines or spirits manufactured on wines and in or imported into Kenya shall have affixed on it, in the prescribed spirits. 10 of manner, an excised stamp issued under the authority of the 2006, s. 2 Commissioner.

(f) used in an export processing zone subject to the conditions and limitations specified in the Export Processing Zones Act; or

(g) exported from an export processing zone to any place outside Kenya, shall be exempt from duty.

(2) Subject to this Act and to any regulations made thereunder, raw materials imported for the manufacture of -

(a) goods for export;

(b) goods for home use as may be approved by the Commissioner; shall be exempt from duty where the users and the approved quantity of such raw materials have been gazetted:

Provided that in the case of refined sugar for industrial use, used in the manufacture of goods for home use, twenty-five per centum of the duty shall be payable.

(3) Deleted by 2 of 2002, Sch.

(4) Any person who diverts any goods manufactured for export for home use without payment of the duty due thereon shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding the higher of one million five hundred thousand shillings or three times the value of the goods, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

Exemption from 142.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where goods which are certain duties of liable to duty have been exported from and are subsequently re-certain re-imported into Kenya then, if the Commissioner is satisfied - imports. 8 of 1991, s.18.

(a) that any duty to which the goods were liable prior to their exportation has been paid and either-

(i) no drawback of the duty was allowed on exportation; or

(ii) if allowed, the drawback has been repaid to the proper officer; and

(b) that the goods have not been subjected to any process after being so exported, or, if so subjected, that their form or character has not been changed and that the goods at the time of re-importation are not liable to duty ad valorem; and

(c) that the owner of the goods prior to exportation gave notice thereof in writing to the proper officer and produced the goods for inspection by him at the port or place from which they were exported, the goods shall, save as otherwise provided in this Act, be exempt from liability to duty:

Provided that the Commissioner may in any particular case direct that this section shall apply to goods notwithstanding that paragraph (c) has not been complied with if he is satisfied that a failure so to direct would involve hardship.

(2) In the case of goods to which subsection (1) would apply but for the fact that at the time of re-importation they are liable to duty ad valorem, the goods shall on re-importation be chargeable with duty as if the value of the goods were only the amount of the increase in value attributable to the process; and for the purpose of ascertaining the increase in value, any sum paid for the execution of the process shall, unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, be taken to be the amount of the increase.

Exemption from certain duties of temporary imports. 10 of 1988, s. 12, 8 of 1991, s. 19, 4 of 1993, s. 17, 6 of 2001, s. 9.

143. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, goods imported in accordance with this section for a temporary use or purpose only shall be exempt from liability to duty.

(2) No goods shall be exempt from liability to duty under this section unless the proper officer has given permission for the importation; and the proper officer shall not give permission -

(a) unless he is satisfied that the goods are imported for a temporary use or purpose only;

(b) unless the owner thereof has deposited, or given security for, the amount of the duty to which the goods would otherwise be liable:

Provided that, notwithstanding subsection (4), the Commissioner may, in the case of filming equipment of a non-consumable nature, accept an undertaking by the importer to export the equipment within the period stipulated in this action in lieu of duty deposit or security subject to the payment of a non-refundable fee of one per cent ad valorem or such other fee as may be prescribed.

(3) Where the proper officer gives permission for the importation of goods under this section, he may impose such conditions as he thinks fit and, whether or not he imposes any conditions, it shall be a condition of importation that the goods shall be exported within such period, not exceeding twelve months from the date of importation, as is consistent with the purpose for which the goods are imported unless the Minister otherwise directs.

(4) Where the conditions of the importation of the goods have been complied with, then, on the exportation of the goods, any deposit or security given under subsection (2) shall be refunded or discharged, as the case may be.

(5) Where a condition of the importation of goods has been contravened, then the owner shall be guilty of an offence and shall be required to pay a penalty equal to the duty which was due and payable on the goods on the date of importation.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), it shall be a condition that the owner exports the goods within such period, not exceeding sixty days, from the date of the payment of the penalty, as the proper officer may allow, in default of which the goods shall be liable to forfeiture.

(7) Subject to subsection (5), sections 14 and 15, and notwithstanding subsection (6), the Commissioner may, upon receipt of an application from the owner and prior to the expiry of the period allowed for temporary importation, allow entry of the goods for home use if he is satisfied with the reasons given.

(8) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that the goods specified in the notice shall not be imported in accordance with this section, or may only be so imported subject to the goods being liable to such proportion of the duty thereon as may be specified in the notice.

Exemption of 143A. Subject to the provisions of this Act, water, other than water excise duty on which is bottled or otherwise packaged for sale, shall be exempt from water excise duty.

(b) in removing, loading, unloading, or receiving them into, or delivering them from, any customs area or warehouse; or

(c) in a customs area or warehouse, before they are delivered out of customs control to the owner thereof, then, if the Commissioner is satisfied that the goods have not been and will not be consumed in Kenya, he may remit the duty payable in respect of those goods.

Refund, Rebate, and Drawback

145.(1) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, direct that, in the case of goods specified therein imported by or on behalf of any person specified therein, any duty paid in respect of the goods shall be refunded, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the order or in regulations.

Refund of certain duties to privileged institutions and personnel, etc. 8 of 1991, s. 20.

(2) The Commissioner may make a refund of any duty paid in respect of goods imported into Kenya, subject to such conditions as he may determine -

(a) in pursuance of an agreement entered into between the Government of Kenya and a government to which section 118 refers;

(b) where the goods are purchased by the Navy, Army and Air Force Institutes for resale;

(c) where the goods are motor spirit or products ordinarily used as such or lubricating oil, and are purchased for official use in vehicles of the Navy, Army and Air Force Institutes or of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission;

(d) where the goods are motor spirit or products ordinarily used as such or lubricating oil, and are purchased by-

(i) an embassy, consulate or diplomatic mission of another country for its official use;

(ii) a member of a diplomatic nation or a consular officer who is a permanent and pensionable member of the foreign service of another country, for its personal use, and that other country accords a similar privilege to permanent members of a Kenya diplomatic nation or a permanent Kenya consular officer;

(iii) one of the international organizations named in the Ninth Schedule for his official use;

(iv) a Secretary-General, a Deputy or Assistant Secretary-General or a Director-General, of one of the organizations listed in the Ninth Schedule for his personal use; or

(v) any other international organization prescribed by the Minister, by order in the Gazette, for the purposes of this subsection, or its entitled personnel.

(3) No refund of duty shall be made under subsection (2) unless the person claiming the refund presents a claim within a period of twelve months from the date of the payment of the duty.

(4) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, amend the Ninth Schedule.

Refund of 146.(1) Subject to this section and any regulations, the Commissioner may grant a refund of certain duties on goods which have been damaged or pillaged, etc., during the voyage or damaged or destroyed while subject to customs control; s. 10.

(b) of any duty which has been paid in error;

(c) Deleted by 6 of 2001, s. 10

(d) of any excise duty which he is satisfied has been paid in respect of goods in relation to which, had the duty not been paid, a remission or rebate thereof would have been granted in accordance with this Act.

(2) No refund of duty shall be granted under subsection (1) unless the person claiming the refund presents a claim within a period of twelve months from the date of the payment of the duty.

(3) The Commissioner shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, refund any duty paid on goods in respect of which an order remitting the duty has been made under section 138:

Provided that the refund shall not be made in respect of goods imported prior to the relevant date specified in such order.

 the contract; and

(b) that the importer with the consent of the seller either -

(i) returned the goods unused to the seller and for that purpose complied with the provisions of section 64 as to entry as if they had been goods to which that section applies; or

(ii) destroyed the goods unused, the Commissioner shall refund any duty paid on the importation of the goods.

(2) No refund of duty shall be granted under subsection (1) unless the person claiming the refund presents a claim within a period of twelve months from the date of the payment of the duty.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to goods imported on approval, or on sale or return, or other similar terms.

Rebate of 148.(1) Where goods imported into Kenya are damaged before the certain duties on goods are delivered out of customs control, then, subject to the damaged goods. provisions of this section, a rebate of the duty payable in respect of the goods may be allowed in such amount as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is in proportion to the damage sustained by the goods.

(2) No rebate of duty shall be allowed under this section in respect of goods (not being goods to which section 154 applies) except where the proper officer is satisfied that the carrier or insurer of the goods has made an allowance to the owner in respect of the damage; and in no case shall the rebate exceed such proportion of the duty as the amount of the allowance so made bears to the value, calculated in accordance with section 127, of the undamaged goods.

Remission or 148A. Where a person has sold excisable goods or services and has refund of duty accounted for and paid excise duty on that sale but has not received any on bad debts payment from the purchaser, he may, after a period of three years from the date of that sale, or where that person has become legally insolvent, apply to the Commissioner for a refund or remission of the excise duty involved, and, subject to the regulations, the Commissioner may refund or remit the excise duty.

Provided that no application for a refund or remission shall be made under this section after the expiry of five years from the date of sale.

Rebate of excise duty. 8 of 1991, s. 23, s.16, 4 of 2004 149.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner may grant a rebate of any duty payable in respect of locally manufactured excisable goods where he is satisfied that a person is, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, entitled to the rebate.

(2) No rebate of duty shall be granted unless the person claiming the rebate presents a claim in the prescribed manner within a period of twelve months from the date when the duty became due.

(3) A person who -

(a) makes a fraudulent claim for rebate of duty; or

(b) with intent to evade payment of duty, gives false information or makes a false statement in relation to any claim for rebate, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding the higher of one million, five hundred thousand shillings or three times the amount of the claim, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

Rebate or refund on converted excisable goods or plastic bags for packing.

149A (1) Where excisable goods on which duty has been paid are converted into other excisable goods liable to duty, whether specific or ad valorem, the excise manufacturer shall be entitled to a rebate of the excise duty previously paid on the converted excisable goods.

(2) Where excise duty has been paid on plastic bags which have subsequently been used for packing by local manufacturer, the excise duty previously paid shall, on application by the manufacturer, be refunded by the Commissioner.

(3) Where excise duty has been paid on spirits which have subsequently been used for manufacturing unexcisable goods, the excise duty previously paid shall, on application by the manufacturer, be refunded by the Commissioner.

150. Repealed by 8 of 1991, s. 24.

Drawback of certain duties on exportation. 8 of 151.(1) Subject to this section, drawback of duty, may on exportation or the performance of such conditions as may be prescribed, be allowed in respect of such goods, in such amount and on such conditions as may 1991, s.25. be prescribed.

(2) Where the owner of goods claims, or proposes to claim, drawback in respect thereof, then, as a condition to the grant of drawback, he shall -

(a) enter the goods in the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner and produce the goods for examination by the proper officer before the exportation thereof or the performance of the conditions on which drawback is allowed; and

(b) make and subscribe a declaration on the prescribed form to the effect that the conditions under which drawback may be allowed have been fulfilled and, in the case of goods exported or put on board an aircraft or vessel for use as stores -

(i) that the goods have actually been exported or put on board for use as stores; and

(ii) that the goods have not been re-imported and are not intended to be re-imported into Kenya; and

(iii) that the owner at the time of the entry of the goods for drawback was, and continues to be, entitled to drawback; and

(c) present his claim for drawback within a period of twelve months from the date of the exportation of the goods or the performance of the conditions on which drawback may be allowed.

(3) Drawback shall not be allowed in respect of goods where-

(a) the value of the goods for home use is less than the amount of the drawback which may be otherwise allowed; or

(b) the import duty thereon was less than five hundred shillings.

(4) Where the proper officer is satisfied that the goods on the drawback, after being duly put on board an aircraft or vessel for exportation or for use as stores-

(a) have been destroyed by accident on board the aircraft or vessel; or

(b) have been materially damaged on board the aircraft or vessel and that the goods have, with the permission of the proper officer, been discharged at the port or place within Kenya and abandoned to the customs,

then drawback may be allowed in respect of those goods as if the goods had actually been exported or used as stores.

Duties to apply proportionately for refund, rebate, etc. 152. Where duty is imposed, or remission, rebate or drawback thereof is allowed, under the provisions of this Act on goods according to a specified weight, measure, number or quantity, then the duty, or remission, rebate or drawback, shall be deemed to apply in the same proportion to any greater or less weight, measure, number or quantity, as the case may be, unless specific provision is made to the contrary under this Act:

Provided that in computing the duty imposed on, or any remission or rebate allowable on, beer, fractions of a litre shall be disregarded.

Refund of excise duty on compounded spirits in bonded warehouses. 153.(1) Where compounded spirits have been deposited in a bonded warehouse, the amount of any refund of excise duty payable on the deposit shall be calculated by reference to the quantity of the spirits computed at proof and shall be an amount equal to the excise duty at the appropriate rate chargeable on the same quantity of spirits at the time when excise duty was paid or secured on the spirits from which the compounded spirits were compounded.

(2) Compounded spirits warehoused under section 104 shall upon delivery from a bonded warehouse for home use be chargeable with excise duty at the rate in force at the time of delivery.

Penalty for fraudulent claims. 153A. (1) Any person who makes a fraudulent claim for refund or rebate of duty shall be guilty of an offence and liable to pay a penalty of an amount equal to two times the amount of the claim.
10 of 2006, s. 3 (2) The penalty under this section shall not be part of the fine imposed by a court in a trial for fraudulent claims under this Act.

Miscellaneous Provisions

Derelict goods, etc., liable to duty. 154. Goods brought or coming into Kenya by sea otherwise than as cargo, stores or baggage carried in a vessel shall be liable to duty and to the provisions of this Act as if they were goods imported in the normal manner; and, if a question arises as to the origin of the goods, they shall be deemed to be the produce of such country as the Commissioner may on investigation determine.

Goods imported duty free liable to certain duties on disposal. 155.(1) Where goods liable to duty have been imported or purchased prior to entry for home use by or on behalf of a person either free of duty or at a reduced rate of duty, and the goods are subsequently disposed of in a manner inconsistent with the purpose for which they were granted relief from duty, then, unless the Minister otherwise directs, the goods shall on disposal be liable to duty at the rate applicable to goods of that class or description at the time of disposal;

Provided that this subsection shall not apply where that person dies and the ownership of such goods is transferred by way of bequest to or inheritance by another person.

(2) Where it is proposed to dispose of goods to which subsection (1) applies, then the person responsible for the disposal of the goods shall, unless the Minister otherwise directs, furnish the Commissioner with the particulars of the proposed disposal and shall cause the duty thereon to be paid.

(3) Subject to this section, where any goods to which subsection (1) applies are possessed by any person in satisfaction of any claim due from the importer or purchaser, that person shall be liable to pay the duty levied on the goods as if it were duty due and payable by that person but nothing in this subsection shall absolve the importer or purchaser from payment of the duty on the goods.

(4) Where goods to which subsection (1) applies are disposed of without the payment of the duty to which they are liable, then they shall be liable to forfeiture.

(5) A person who knowingly disposes of or knowingly acquires goods to which subsection (1) applies without the duty thereon having been paid in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence.

Excisable goods granted remission, etc., liable to duty on disposal.

156.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where excisable goods in respect of which remission, rebate or refund of duty has been granted are subsequently disposed of in a manner inconsistent with the purpose for which the remission, rebate or refund was granted, then, unless the Minister otherwise directs, the excisable goods shall thereupon be liable to the duty which would have been paid thereon if the remission, rebate or refund had not been granted.

(2) Where a person in possession of excisable goods in respect of which remission, rebate or refund of duty has been granted for any purpose proposes to dispose of the goods for a purpose inconsistent with the purpose for which the remission, rebate or refund was granted, then he shall, unless the Minister otherwise directs, furnish the Commissioner with the particulars of the proposed disposal and shall pay the duty thereon.

(3) Where excisable goods to which subsection (1) applies are sold or otherwise disposed of without payment of the duty to which they are liable, then the goods shall be liable to forfeiture.

(4) A person who knowingly disposes of, or knowingly acquires, excisable goods to which subsection (1) applies without the duty thereon having been paid in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of an offence.

Excisable goods liable to duty on re-importation. 157. Subject to the provisions of this Act, where remission, rebate or refund of duty has been granted in respect of excisable goods which have been exported or shipped for use as stores for an aircraft or vessel and the excisable goods are subsequently unloaded in Kenya for home use, then the excisable goods shall be liable to duty at the rate in force at the time of unloading.

Short levy or erroneous refund. 14 of 1982, s.5. 158.(1) Where duty has been short levied or erroneously refunded, then the person who should have paid the amount short levied or to whom the refund has erroneously been made shall, on demand by the proper officer, pay the amount short levied or repay the amount erroneously refunded, as the case may be; and any such amount may be recovered as if it were duty to which the goods in relation to which the amount was so short levied or erroneously refunded, as the case may be, were liable:

Provided that the proper officer shall not make any such demand after five years from the date of the short levy or erroneous refund unless the short levy or erroneous refund had been caused by fraud on the part of the person who should have paid the amount short levied or to whom the refund was erroneously made.

(2)Where, on demand, a person who should have paid amount short levied or to whom the refund has been erroneously made fails to pay the amount short levied or to repay the amount erroneously refunded, then the Commissioner may order that any other entries or other documents by that person or his agent shall not be accepted by the customs, or may revoke or suspend that person's until the duty short levied or erroneously refunded been paid or repaid.

Duties not to be abated on conviction. 8 of 1989, s. 4. 158A.Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the amount of duty or penalty payable under this Act shall not be abated by reason only of the conviction of the person liable for the payment thereof for an offence under this Act.

Commissioner may refrain from recovering of duty in certain cases. 9 of 1992, s. 13, 8 of 1997, 158B.(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, in any case where the Commissioner is of the opinion that he should refrain from recovery of duty or penalty or both, from any person by reason of impossibility or undue difficulty or the expense of the recovery of the duty or penalty or both, or due to any other reasonable cause, the Commissioner may refrain

s. 8, 11 of 2000, from recovery of the duty or penalty or both and thereupon liability to the duty or penalty or both shall be deemed to be extinguished and shall make quarterly returns to the Minister of all the amounts of duties or penalties not recovered pursuant to this subsection:

Provided that in any case where the amount of duty or penalty exceeds five hundred thousand shillings, the Commissioner shall first seek the prior written approval of the Minister.

(2) Where the Commissioner has decided to refrain from recovering duty or penalty or both under subsection (1), he shall report that decision in writing to the Minister as soon as possible after the 30th June next following his decision.

(3) Where a case has been referred to him, and where he considers it appropriate, the Minister may, in writing, direct Commissioner to -

- (a) take such action under this section as the Minister may deem fit; or
- (b) obtain the direction of the court upon the case.

158C. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Commissioner shall refrain from recovering any penalty, fine on any goods imported into the country before the 11th June, 2004 or excisable goods manufactured and sold in the country before the 30th April, 2004, where-

- (a) the duties are paid; and
- (b) all returns, or amended returns, which should have been submitted in respect of the goods, are submitted, on or before 31st December, 2004:

Provided that this section shall not apply in respect off duty if the person who should have paid the duty –

- (i) has been assessed in respect of the duty or any matter relating to the duty; or
- (ii) is under audit or investigation in respect of the duty or any matter relating to the duty.

Disputes. 8 of 159.(1) If, before the delivery of imported or excisable goods from customs control, a dispute arises as to whether any or what duty is payable on those goods, the importer or excise licensee shall pay the 1991, s. 28.

amount demanded by the proper officer but may, not later than six months after the date of payment, file a suit in court for the determination of the matter in dispute:

Provided that for the purposes of this section, locally manufactured excisable goods delivered prior to payment of duty under sections 134 and 137 shall be deemed to be under customs control until duties are paid in full.

(2) If in a suit referred to in subsection (1) the court determines that a lesser or no amount was properly payable in respect of duty on the goods; the amount overpaid shall be repaid by the Commissioner.

(3) Where a dispute arises as to the amount of drawback payable in respect of goods, the exporter shall receive the amount of drawback allowed by the proper officer but may, not later than six months after the date of the receipt of the drawback; file a suit in court for the determination of the matter in dispute.

(4) If in a suit referred to in subsection (3) the court determines that a greater amount was properly payable in respect of drawback; the amount underpaid shall be paid by the Commissioner.

(5) Where the court determines that a lesser or no amount was properly payable in respect of duty, or a greater amount was properly payable in respect of drawback, no officer who has acted in good faith shall be liable to legal proceedings arising out of his determination of the amount payable in respect of duty or in respect of drawback.

159A (1) Subject to such conditions as the Commissioner may prescribe, excise duty formalities or procedures under this Act may be carried out by use of information technology.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, specify-
- (a) the excise duty formalities and procedures which may be carried out by use of information technology; and
 - (b) the persons authorized to carry out such formalities or procedures by use of information technology.

159B (1) No person shall access, transmit to, or receive information from a tax computerized system unless the person is registered as a user of such system under this section.

(2) A person seeking registration under this section shall apply to the Commissioner

(3) The commissioner shall consider every application under subsection (2) and may, if satisfied that the applicant meets the prescribed requirements, register the applicant as a user of a tax computerized system.

159C. Whether, at any time, the Commissioner is satisfied that a person who is registered as a user of a tax computerized system under section 159B-

- (a) has failed to comply with any of the conditions imposed by the Commissioner under that Section; or
- (b) has failed to comply with, or has acted in contravention of, any prescribed requirements; or
- (c) has been convicted of an offence under this act relating to improper access to or interference with a tax computerized system, the commissioner may cancel the registration of the user.

159C (1) A person commits an offence if the person-

- (a) knowingly and without lawful authority, by any means gains access to or attempts to gain access to any tax computerized system; or
- (b) having lawful access to any tax computerized system, knowingly uses or discloses information obtained from such system or a purpose which is not authorized; or
- (c) knowing that he is not authorized to do so, receives information obtained from any tax computerized system, and uses, discloses, publishes, or otherwise disseminates such information.

(2) a person who commits an offence under subsection (1) shall be liable, on conviction-

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding four hundred thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two year, or to both; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding one million shillings.

- (c) knowing that he is not authorized to do so, receives information obtained from any tax computerized system, and uses, discloses, publishes, or otherwise disseminates such information.

(2) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) shall be liable, on conviction-

- (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding four hundred thousand shillings; or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding one million shillings.

159E. A person commits an offence if the person knowingly

- (a) falsifies any record or information stored in any tax computerized system; or
- (b) damages or impairs any tax computerized system; or
- (c) damages or impairs any duplicate tape or disc or other medium on which any information emanating from a tax computerized system is held or stored, otherwise than with the permission of the Commissioner, and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding eight hundred thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

PART XII- PROVISIONS RELATING TO SECURITIES

Commissioner may require security. 13 of 1984, s.6.

160. (1) The Commissioner may require a person to give security for the due compliance by that person with this Act and generally for the protection of the customs and excise revenue; and, pending the giving of security in relation to goods subject to customs control, the Commissioner may refuse to permit delivery or exportation of the goods or to pass any entry in relation thereto or to issue an excise licence.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) "customs and excise revenue" includes a cess, levy, imposition, tax or surtax imposed on goods under any written law.

General provisions relating to giving security.

161.(1) Where security is required to be given under this Act, then the security may be given to the satisfaction of the Commissioner either - of (a) by bond, in such sum and subject to such conditions and with such sureties as the Commissioner may reasonably require; or

(b) by cash deposit; or

(c) partly by bond and partly by cash deposit.

(2) Where security is required to be given under this Act for any particular purpose, then the security may, with the approval of the Commissioner, be given to cover any other transactions which the person giving the security may enter into within such period as the Commissioner may approve.

(3) All bonds required to be given under this Act shall be so framed that the person giving the bond, and any surety thereto, is bound to the Commissioner of Customs and Excise by that name for the due performance of the conditions of the bond; and all bonds may, unless sooner discharged by the due performance of the conditions thereof, be discharged by the Commissioner on the expiration of three years from the date thereof, but without prejudice to the right to the Commissioner to require fresh security.

(4) Where a bond given under this Act is discharged, then the Commissioner shall cause the bond to be cancelled and an endorsement to that effect made thereon.

(5) A bond given under this Act shall, notwithstanding that the bond or any surety thereto is given by a person under the age of eighteen years, be valid and enforceable as if it were so given by a person of full age.

Provisions relating to sureties.

162.(1) Without prejudice to the rights of a surety to a bond given under this Act against the person for whom he is surety, a surety shall for all the purposes of a bond be deemed to be the principal debtor and accordingly the surety shall not be discharged, nor his liability affected, by the giving of time for payment, or by the omission to enforce the bond for a breach of any conditions thereof, or by any other act or omission which would not have discharged the bond if he had been the principal debtor.

(2) If a person being a surety -

(a) dies; or

(b) becomes a bankrupt or enters into an arrangement or composition with, or for the benefit of, his creditors; or

(c) departs from Kenya without leaving sufficient property therein to satisfy the whole amount of the bond, the Commissioner may require the person giving the bond to enter into fresh security.

Enforcement of bond. 8 of 1983, s. 4, 8 of 1997, s. 9, 5 of 1998, s. 10, 5 of 1998.

163.(1) Where the conditions of a bond have not been complied with then the Commissioner may by notice in writing forthwith require the person who has given security under it to pay to the Commissioner the amount of the security within fourteen days' of the notice; and on failure to comply with the notice, the Commissioner may enforce payment of the security as though it were duty due and unpaid.

(2) A person against whom the Commissioner has enforced payment of a security under subsection (1) may, if aggrieved by such enforcement, file a suit in court for determination of the matter, within six months of the enforcement:

Provided that prior to filing the suit, such person shall deposit to the Commissioner the whole amount of duty demanded.

(3) Nothing in this section shall, unless the Commissioner otherwise allows, absolve the person who has given security under section 160 from the obligations entered into by him under this Act or under any other law.

PART XIII - CUSTOMS AND EXCISE AGENTS

Authority of 164.(1) Where under the provisions of this Act the owner of goods is agents. 10 of required or authorized to perform any act, then that act, unless the 1990, s.7. contrary appears, may be performed on his behalf by an authorized agent.

(2) A person shall not be the duly authorized agent of an owner unless-

(a) the person is exclusively in the employment of the owner; or

(b) the person is a customs or excise agent duly licensed as such in accordance with any regulations, and, in either case the person is authorized in writing by the owner, either generally or in relation to a particular act, to perform the act on behalf of the owner.

(3) The proper officer may require from a person purporting to be the duly authorized agent of an owner the production of his written authority and in default of the production of that authority the proper officer may refuse to recognize the person as a duly authorized agent.

Liability of 165.A duly authorized agent who performs an act on behalf of the duly authorized owner of any goods shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be agent. the owner of the goods and shall accordingly be personally liable for the payment of any duties to which the goods are liable and for the performance of all acts in respect of the goods which the owner thereof is required to perform under this Act; but nothing herein contained shall relieve the owner of the goods from that liability.

(5) Where a notice of claim has been given in accordance with subsection (4), then the thing seized shall be detained by the Commissioner to be dealt with in accordance with this Act:

Provided that the Commissioner may permit the thing to be delivered to the person making the claim (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the claimant) subject to the claimant giving security for the payment of the value thereof, as determined by the Commissioner, in the event of its condemnation.

Effects of 201.(1) Where a person is prosecuted for an offence under this Act and conviction, etc., any thing is liable to forfeiture by reason of the commission of that offence, the conviction of that person of that offence shall, without to forfeiture further order, have effect as the condemnation of that thing.

(2) Where a person is prosecuted for an offence under this Act and anything is liable to forfeiture by reason of the commission of that offence, then, on the acquittal of that person, the court may order that thing either -

(a) to be released to the person from whom it was seized or to the owner thereof; or

(b) to be condemned.

Procedure after notice of claim. 202. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where the owner of any thing seized claims it by notice to the Commissioner pursuant to section 200(4), the owner may, within two months of the date of the notice, institute proceedings for recovery of the thing seized:

Provided that where no proceedings are instituted under this subsection within the period specified, the thing seized shall be condemned,

(2) Where –

(a) the owner of any thing seized is charged with an offence by reason of which the thing is seized; and

(b) the charges preferred are subsequently withdrawn for any reason,

The period specified in subsection (1) shall begin to run on the date such charges are withdrawn.

(3) where proceedings are instituted under subsection (1), any thing seized shall be condemned if –

(a) the court is satisfied that the thing –

(i) is liable to forfeiture under this Act; or

(ii) comprises prohibited or restricted goods which have been imported or carried coastwise or attempted to be exported in contravention of any law; or

(b) the court is not satisfied that the claimant is the owner of, or is entitled to possession of, the thing.

(4) If anything seized is not condemned under subsection (3), the court shall release it to the owner subject to the payment of any applicable duty.

Provision relating to condemnation. 203.(1) Where anything has been seized under this Act provisions as being liable to forfeiture, then the condemnation of the thing shall in no way be affected by the fact that an owner of the thing was in no way concerned with the act which rendered it liable to forfeiture.

(2) Where anything is condemned under this Act, then -

(a) subject to section 214, the thing shall be forfeited and may be sold, destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Commissioner may think fit;

(b) condemnation of the thing shall have effect as from the date when the liability to forfeiture arose;

(c) condemnation shall, subject to any appeal in proceedings which resulted in condemnation, be final and, save as provided in section 204 no application or proceedings for restoration or in detinue by any person shall lie.

(3) Where goods have been condemned and are in the possession of some authority other than the customs they shall be returned to the customs for disposal under subsection (2).

Restoration of seizures. 204.(1) Where anything has been seized under this Act, the Minister may, on application by the person from whom the thing was seized, whether or not such thing has been condemned, direct that it be released to the applicant upon such terms and conditions as the Minister may think fit.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be in writing and shall be forwarded to the Minister through the Commissioner.

PART XVI - LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings triable in subordinate court of first class. Cap. 75. 205.(1) Without prejudice to the powers of any other court of competent jurisdiction, a prosecution for an offence under this Act may be heard and determined before a subordinate court of the first class; and where any such court hears and determines the prosecution it shall have jurisdiction to impose any fine or any sentence of imprisonment which may be imposed under this Act on a person convicted of the offence.

(2) Without prejudice to the powers of any other court of competent jurisdiction, proceedings under Part XV relating to a claim to anything which has been seized under this Act, and a claim to any duties, rents, charges, expenses or other sums payable under this Act, may be heard and determined, without limit of amount, in civil proceedings before a subordinate court of the first class.

(3) Save where otherwise expressly provided, a person brought before a court for an offence under this Act shall be dealt with in accordance with the Criminal Procedure Code.

Actions by or against the Commissioner. 206.(1) Where under this Act proceedings may be brought by or against the Commissioner, then the Commissioner may sue or be sued in the Commissioner. name of the Commissioner of Customs and Excise and may for all purposes be described by that name; and, notwithstanding that an action may lie in tort, the Commissioner shall be responsible for the acts and defaults of an officer as if the officer were his servant or agent:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer a right of action against the Commissioner in his representative capacity, whether in contract or in tort, unless such right of action is specifically given in any other provision in this Act.

(2) Where under this Act proceedings are brought by or against the Commissioner in his representative capacity, costs may be awarded to or against the Commissioner.

(3) Where under this Act proceedings are brought by or against the Commissioner in his representative capacity and -

(a) any sums or costs are recovered by the Commissioner, then those sums or costs shall be credited to the customs and excise revenue:

(b) any damages or costs are ordered to be paid by the Commissioner, then those damages or costs shall be paid out of the monies appropriated for the administration of the customs and the Commissioner shall not be personally liable therefor.

Limitation of proceedings. 207. Proceedings for an offence under this Act may be commenced, and anything liable to forfeiture under this Act may be seized, within five years of the date of the offence.

Provisions relating to proof, etc., in proceedings. 208.In proceedings under this Act -
 10 of 1987, s. 6, 5
 of 1989, s. 5.

(c) the averment by the Commissioner-

(i) that a person is or was an officer or is or was employed in the prevention of smuggling, or that an act was performed by an officer in the execution of his duty;

(ii) that any goods were staved, broken, destroyed, rescued or thrown overboard, or were so staved, broken, destroyed, rescued or thrown overboard for the purpose of preventing the seizure thereof or the securing thereof after seizure;

(iii) that any act was done within the limits of a port or at, in or over any part of Kenya;

(iv) that the Commissioner, or an officer, is or is not satisfied as to any matter as to which he is required to be satisfied under this Act:

(v) that the Commissioner has directed or requested proceedings under this Act to be instituted, shall be prima facie evidence of that fact;

(d) a certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Government Analyst or the Government Chemist shall be receivable in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the matters recorded therein;

(e) the production of a document purporting to be signed or issued by the Commissioner or any person in the service of the Government shall be prima facie evidence that the document was so signed or issued;

(f) a copy, certified under the hand of the Commissioner, of an entry in a book or document required to be kept for the purposes of this Act shall be receivable in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the entry and of the matters recorded therein;

(g) any information, communication, certificate, official report or other document purporting to originate from or to be certified under the hand and seal or stamp of office of a principal officer of customs and excise or of any other competent authority in a foreign country and produced by the Commissioner shall be receivable in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the matters communicated or recorded therein;

(h) a certificate or a copy of a document or publication purporting to be signed or issued by or under the authority of the Customs Co-operation Council (established by an international convention at Brussels on 15th December, 1950) and produced by the Commissioner shall be receivable in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the matters contained therein;

(i) any information, communication or certificate or a copy of a document purporting to be signed or issued by or under the authority of any institution, organization or firm recognized and authorized by the Government under any agreement and produced by the Commissioner shall be receivable in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the matters communicated or contained therein;

(j) an officer shall be a competent witness notwithstanding that he is entitled to a reward;

(k) the fact that security has been given by bond or otherwise for the payment of duty or for the compliance with any condition in respect of the non-payment of which or non-compliance with which the proceedings are brought shall not be a defence.

Provisions relating to penalties for offences. 7 of 1988, s. 16. 209.(1) Where any court imposes on a person a fine for an offence under this Act in relation to which an alternative of imprisonment is not specified, then the court may order that person, in default of payment of the fine, to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding -

(a) twelve months, where the fine imposed does not exceed ten thousand shillings;

(b) three years, where the fine imposed exceeds ten thousand shillings.

(2) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act involving intent to defraud, then the maximum fine which may be imposed on that person shall be double that otherwise provided under this Act.

(3) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act and is liable to a fine of twenty thousand shillings or more and that person has previously been convicted of an offence under this Act or has previously been ordered to pay a sum of money under Part XVII and that order has been enforced by a court, then the court before which the person is so convicted may order that person to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding three years, or to pay the fine to which he is so liable, or to be both so imprisoned and fined.

(4) Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or similar officer of the body corporate, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, then he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Place of trial. 210.A person charged with an offence under this Acts may be proceeded against, tried and punished in any place in which he may be in custody for that offence as if the offence had been committed in that place; and the offence shall for all purposes incidental to, or consequential upon, the prosecution, trial or punishment thereof be deemed to have been committed in that place:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude the prosecution, trial and punishment of that person in a place in which, but for the provisions of this section, that person might have been prosecuted, tried and punished.

Protection of witnesses. 211. (1) No witness on behalf of the Government or of the Commissioner in proceedings under this Act shall be compelled to disclose the fact that he received information relating to a customs matter, or the nature of that information, or the name of the person who gave that information.

(2) No officer appearing as a witness in any proceedings shall be compelled to produce any confidential reports made or received by him in his official capacity or any confidential information received by him in that capacity.

Reasonable grounds for defence in any action against officer. 212.(1) Where any proceedings, whether by way of prosecution or otherwise, are taken under this Act, and -
(a) the proceedings result in a determination in favour of a person prosecuted, or in favour of an owner claiming anything which has been seized; and

(b) the proceedings arise out of an act done, whether by way of seizure or otherwise by an officer in the execution or intended execution of his duty under this Act; and

(c) the court before which the proceedings are determined finds that there were reasonable grounds for the act, then the court shall, on request made by or on behalf of the officer, so certify on the record; and a certified copy of that finding shall, on the request of the officer, be delivered to him and shall be receivable in evidence in any proceedings in proof of that finding.

(2) No officer shall be liable to any action or other proceedings on account of an act in respect of which a court has, under subsection (1), found that there were reasonable grounds for the act.

(3) Where proceedings are brought against an officer on account of an act done, whether by way of seizure or otherwise in the execution or intended execution of his duty under this Act and judgment is given against the officer, then, notwithstanding that in proceedings referred to in subsection (1), a court has not found that there were reasonable grounds for the act, if the court before which the proceedings are heard is satisfied that there were reasonable grounds for the act, the plaintiff shall be entitled to recover anything seized, or the value thereof, but shall not otherwise be entitled to damages and no costs shall be awarded to either party.

Power of officer to prosecute. of 213. Any officer may appear and prosecute in a prosecution before a subordinate court for an offence under this Act.

PART XVII-SETTLEMENT OF CASES BY THE COMMISSIONER

Power of Commissioner to compound offence by agreement. 10 of 1980, s. 2. of 214.(1) The Commissioner may, where he is satisfied that a person has committed an offence under this Act in respect of which a penalty of a fine is provided, or in respect of which anything is liable to forfeiture, compound the offence and may order that person to pay such sum of money, not exceeding the amount of the fine to which he would have been liable if he had been prosecuted and convicted for the offence, as he may think fit; and he may order anything liable to forfeiture in connection therewith to be condemned:

Provided that the Commissioner shall not exercise his powers under this section unless the person in writing admits that he has committed the offence and requests the Commissioner to deal with the offence under this section.

(2) Where the Commissioner makes an order under this section -

(a) the order shall be put into writing and shall have attached to it the request of the person to the Commissioner to deal with the matter; and

(b) the order shall specify the offence which the person committed and the penalty imposed by the Commissioner; and

(c) a copy of the order shall be given to the person if he so requests; and

(d) the person shall not be liable to further prosecution in respect of the offence save with the express consent in writing thereto of the Attorney-General; and, unless that consent has been given, if a prosecution is brought it shall be a good defence for that person to prove that the offence with which he is charged has been compounded under this section; and

(c) subject to paragraph (d), the order shall be final and shall not be subject to appeal and may be enforced in the same manner as a decree or order of the High Court.

PART XVII-SETTLEMENT OF CASES BY THE COMMISSIONER

Power of Commissioner to compound offence by agreement. 10 of 1980, s. 2. 214.(1) The Commissioner may, where he is satisfied that a person has committed an offence under this Act in respect of which a penalty of a fine is provided, or in respect of which anything is liable to forfeiture, compound the offence and may order that person to pay such sum of money, not exceeding the amount of the fine to which he would have been liable if he had been prosecuted and convicted for the offence, as he may think fit; and he may order anything liable to forfeiture in connection therewith to be condemned:

Provided that the Commissioner shall not exercise his powers under this section unless the person in writing admits that he has committed the offence and requests the Commissioner to deal with the offence under this section.

(2) Where the Commissioner makes an order under this section -

(a) the order shall be put into writing and shall have attached to it the request of the person to the Commissioner to deal with the matter; and

(b) the order shall specify the offence which the person committed and the penalty imposed by the Commissioner; and

(c) a copy of the order shall be given to the person if he so requests; and

(d) the person shall not be liable to further prosecution in respect of the offence save with the express consent in writing thereto of the Attorney-General; and, unless that consent has been given, if a prosecution is brought it shall be a good defence for that person to prove that the offence with which he is charged has been compounded under this section; and

(c) subject to paragraph (d), the order shall be final and shall not be subject to appeal and may be enforced in the same manner as a decree or order of the High Court.

Provisions related to prescribed forms. 216.(1) Where the form of an entry, bond, return, account or other document required or authorized for the purposes of this Act has been prescribed, then all entries, bonds, returns, accounts or other documents shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain all the prescribed particulars.

(2) Where a prescribed form contains, by way of note or otherwise, a clear direction or indication of a requirement as to -

(a) the colour or size of the form;

(b) the number of copies of the form to be tendered (and the word "in duplicate" or similar words shall be sufficient indication of the number required);

(c) the nature or form of the information to be furnished;

(d) any action to be taken by the person concerned, or his agent, in the transaction in which the form is used;

(e) the receipts to be signed by any person in proof of the fact that the goods described in the form have been received for carriage or otherwise.

then the requirements so indicated shall be deemed to have been prescribed.

(3) The proper officer may require copies of a prescribed form in addition to the numbers indicated on that form.

Provisions related to all documents. 4 of 2004, s. 21

217.(1) Where a document required or authorized for the purposes of this Act contains any words not in the English language, then the person producing or using the document may be required to produce therewith a correct English translation of those words.

(2) Where a person is required to submit a form for the purposes of this Act, then the proper officer may require that person to submit as many copies thereof as he may think necessary.

(3) Where the proper officer requires an invoice to be produced for goods which have been imported, exported, carried coastwise or entered in transit or for transshipment, he may require the invoice to be submitted in original and duplicate and he may retain both.

(3A) Where a person is required under this Act to keep a document or record, the person shall retain the document or record for at least seven years after the document or record was created.

(3B) Where, under the provisions of this Act, any accounts, books of account, or other records are required to be kept, such accounts, books or records may be kept in written form or in micro-film, magnetic tape or in any other form of mechanical or electronic data retrieval mechanism.

(4) A person who fails to comply with a requirement under this section shall be guilty of an offence.

Production of documents 8 of 1991, s. 30. 6 of 1994, s. 10.

218.(1) The proper officer may, within five years of the date of importation or exportation, carriage coastwise, manufacture or delivery of any goods, require the owner thereof -

(a) to produce all books and documents relating in anyway to those goods; and

(b) to answer any questions in relation thereto; and as the proper officer may think fit.

(c) to make such declaration with respect to the weight, number, measure, strength, value, cost, selling price, origin, destination or place of transshipment of those goods,

(2) The proper officer may require any person who imports, exports or manufactures any goods similar to the goods to which subsection (1) applies but who is not the owner thereof -

(a) to produce all books and documents relating in anyway to his goods; and

(b) to furnish any information or particulars in relation thereto; and

(c) to make such declaration with respect to the weight, number, measure, strength, value, cost, selling price, origin, destination or place of transshipment of his goods previously imported, or intended to be imported by him as the proper officer may think fit.

(3) The proper officer may require a person concerned in the exportation of goods to produce, within such time as the proper officer may consider reasonable, a certificate from the customs authorities at the port of discharge of the due discharge thereat of those goods according to the export entry.

(4) Where a person fails to comply with a requirement made by the proper officer under this section, then the proper officer may refuse entry or delivery, or prevent exportation of the goods, or may allow entry, delivery or exportation upon the deposit of such sum, pending the production of the books and documents, as he may think fit; and a deposit so made shall be forfeited and paid into the customs and excise revenue if the documents are not produced within three months, or such further time as the proper officer may permit of the date of the deposit.

(5) Where a requirement made by the proper officer under this section relates to goods which have already been delivered or exported and the owner fails to comply with that requirement, then the proper officer may refuse to allow the owner to deliver or export any other goods.

(6) The proper officer may retain any document produced by any owner under the provisions of this section but the owner shall be entitled to a copy thereof certified under the hand of the Commissioner; and the certified copy shall be receivable in evidence in all courts and shall have equal validity with the original.

(7) A person who fails to comply with any requirement made under this section shall be guilty of an offence.

218A. Where, in the opinion of the Commissioner, a person had failed to pay duty which is payable by him by reason of –

(a) his failure to keep proper books of account, records or documents, as required under this Act, or the incorrectness or inadequacy of those books of account, records or documents; or

(b) his failure to make any return required under this Act, or delay in making such return, or the inadequacy or incorrectness of any such return, the Commissioner may, on such evidence as may be unavailable to him, and according to his own judgment, determine the amount of the duty, if any, which is payable.

Power to require information from importers concerning dumping.

219.(1) The Commissioner may require the importer of goods regarded as having been dumped to state such facts concerning the goods and their history as the Commissioner may think necessary to determine whether the goods are goods originating in a country specified in an order or are goods exported from any country, and to furnish him in such form as he may require with proof of any statements so made; and if proof is not furnished to his satisfaction or the required facts are not stated, the goods shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have originated in or, as the case may be, to have been exported from, such country as he may determine.

(2) Where the question whether any and if so what dumping duty is chargeable on the goods depends on other matters besides the country in which the goods originated or from which they were exported, the Commissioner may also require the importer to state such facts as the Commissioner may think necessary to determine that question, and with regard to those other matters to furnish him in such form as he may require with proof of any statements so made; and if proof is not furnished to his satisfaction or the required facts are not stated, those facts shall be deemed for the purposes of duty imposed by an order to be such as he may determine.

Provisions relating to declaration and signatures. 220.(1) Where under this Act a declaration is required or authorized to be made, then the declaration may be made before a magistrate, notary public or commissioner for oaths, or before an officer authorized by the Commissioner for that purpose.

(2) Where under this Act a document is required or authorized to be signed in the presence of the Commissioner or of a particular officer, then, if the document is signed in the presence of a witness who is approved by, and whose signature is known to, the Commissioner or the particular officer, the document shall be deemed for the purpose of this Act to have been signed in the presence of the Commissioner or the particular officer.

Receipts for payment entry. 221. Where a person requires a receipt for money paid and brought on account in respect of an entry, then that person shall furnish the proper officer with an additional copy, marked as such, of the entry and the additional copy duly signed by the proper officer and acknowledging receipt of the money shall be given to that person and shall constitute the receipt for the payment.

Service of notices, etc. 222.(1) Where under this Act a notice or other document is required or authorized to be served on, or given or delivered to, the Commissioner or any other officer, then the notice or other document may be so served, given or delivered -

(b) by leaving it at the office of the Commissioner or other officer; or

(c) by sending it by post to the Commissioner or other officer.

(2) Where under this Act a notice or other document is required or authorized to be served on, or given or delivered to a person by the Commissioner or any other officer, then such notice or other document may be so served, given or delivered -

(a) by delivering it personally to that person; or

(b) by leaving it at the usual or last known place of address of that person;

or

(c) by sending it by post addressed to that person at his usual or last known place of address.

Provisions relating to loading, etc., of goods.

223.Where under this Act goods are required or authorized to be -

(a) loaded, unloaded or removed to any place for security, examination, weighing, sorting or any other purpose prior to delivery or, in the case of goods for export, to exportation, then all such operations shall be performed by or at the expense of the owner of the goods;

(b) unpacked, sorted, piled or otherwise prepared for examination, then all such operations shall be performed by and at the expense of the owner of the goods and in such manner as the proper officer may require so as to enable him to examine and take account of the goods.

Proper officer may take or allow samples to be taken.

224.(1) The proper officer may at any time take samples of goods subject to customs control for such purposes as the Commissioner may think necessary; and any such samples shall be disposed of and accounted for in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

(2) The proper officer may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, permit the owner of any goods subject to customs control to take samples of those goods without payment of the duty thereon at the times the samples are taken.

Recovery of excise duty by distress. 8 of 1983 .s.5.

225.(1) Where duty remains unpaid by a person after the time when, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, it is required to be paid, then the Commissioner may authorize distress to be levied -

(a) upon the goods, chattels and effects of the person who should have paid the duty wherever those goods, chattels and effects may be found; and

(b) upon the plant of any factory and upon any vats, vehicles, animals or other articles used in the manufacture, sale or distribution of excisable or other goods by that person and found on any premises in the use or possession of that person or of any person on his behalf or in trust for him.

(2) The warrant of distress shall be in the form set out in the Sixth Schedule and the warrant shall be authority to distrain for the amount of the duty specified herein; and for the purpose of levying distress the person authorized under the warrant may, if necessary, break open any building or place in the daytime and may call to his assistance a police officer and the police officer shall render assistance accordingly.

(3) Where anything has been distrained upon under a warrant, then it shall be kept at the cost of the owner thereof for a period of fourteen days or until the amount due in respect of duty and of the costs and charges of, and incidental to the distress are paid, whichever is the sooner; and if at the end of the period of fourteen days the duty, costs and charges are not paid in full then the thing may be sold.

(4) Where anything is sold in accordance with this section, then the proceeds of sale shall be applied in discharge of -

(a) the duties; and

(b) the costs and charges of, and incidental to, the levying of distress and the sale, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the thing if he makes application therefor within twelve months of the date of the sale.

Penalty for late payment. 14 of 1982, s. 8, 8 of 1991, s. 32, 13 of 1995, s. 49, 6 of 2001, s. 21.

225A.(1) Subject to sections 20 (2) and 158 where an amount of duty or other sum of money which is due under this Act remains unpaid after the date upon which it is payable, a penalty of two per cent per month or part thereof, of the unpaid amount shall forthwith be due and payable.

Provided that the penalty chargeable under this subsection shall not exceed one hundred percent of the duty originally due.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a penalty imposed under this section shall be recoverable as though it were duty.

(3) A penalty imposed under this section in respect of non-payment of a sum of money payable pursuant to an order made under section 214, shall be recoverable as though it were part of that order.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a person from whom a penalty under subsection (1) is due may apply in writing to the Commissioner for remission of the penalty.

(5) Upon receipt of an application under subsection (4), the Commissioner shall where the applicant has paid the principal duty in full, suspend the charging of the penalty pending the determination of the application.

(6) The Commissioner may, after consideration of an application under subsection (4), remit the whole or part of the penalty due if satisfied that such remission is justified, and shall make quarterly reports of all remissions granted under this subsection to the Minister.

Provided that where the amount of the penalty exceeds one million five hundred thousand shillings, the remission shall be subject to the approval of the Minister.

(7) Where remission under subsection (6) is not granted, or is granted in respect of only part of the penalty, the balance of the penalty shall become due and payable within ninety days of the determination of the application.

(8) If the balance of a penalty payable under subsection (7) remains unpaid after the expiry of the specified period, a surcharge of two percent per month or part thereof, of the unpaid amount shall forthwith be due and payable.

Security on 225B.(1) Where a person, being the owner of land or buildings situated in property of Kenya, fails to pay any duty or other sum of money due and payable unpaid duty, under this Act, the Commissioner may by notice in writing inform that etc. 14 of 1982 person of his intention to apply to the Registrar of Lands for the land or s. 8. buildings to be the subject of security for the duty or other sum of an amount specified in the notice.

(2) If a person on whom a notice has been served under this section fails to pay the whole of the amount specified in the notice within thirty days of the date of service thereof, the Commissioner may by notice in writing direct the Registrar of Lands that the land or buildings, to the extent of the interest of that person therein, be the subject of security for duty or other sum of a specified amount, and the Registrar shall, without fee, register the direction as if it were a mortgage over or charge on the land or buildings and thereupon the registration shall, subject to any prior mortgage or charge operate while it subsists in all respects as a legal mortgage or charge to secure the amount payable.

(3) The Commissioner shall, upon the payment of the whole of the amount secured under subsection (2), by notice in writing to the Registrar of Lands cancel the direction made under that subsection and the Registrar shall, without fee, record the cancellation.

Rewards. 226.The Commissioner may award to any person -
13 of 1979, s.
2, 8 of
1997,s.11. (a) who has arrested or has assisted in the arrest of any other person under this Act such reward, not exceeding twenty thousand shillings, as he may think fit on the conviction of that other person;

(b) who has seized goods or by whose aid goods are seized under this Act such reward, not exceeding the value of the goods seized or twenty thousand shillings, whichever is the less, as he may think fit;

(c) by whose aid a conviction is obtained in any prosecution under this Act such reward not exceeding twenty thousand shillings as he may think fit;

(d) by whose aid an offence is compounded in accordance with Part XVII such reward not exceeding twenty thousand shillings as he may think fit.

Auctioneers legislation not to apply to sales.

227. Where goods are sold under this Act, then the provisions of any other legislation relating to auctioneers shall not apply to the sale.

VALUE OF IMPORTED GOODS

The customs value of imported goods shall be determined through application of the following Articles in the sequence indicated except where otherwise stated.

ARTICLE 1

VALUE OF THE GOODS

The customs value of imported goods shall be the price actually paid or payable for the goods when sold for export to Kenya, adjusted in accordance with the provisions of Appendix B, provided -

(1) (a) that there are no restrictions as to the disposition or use of the goods by the buyer other than restrictions which-

(i) are imposed or required by law;

(ii) limit the geographical area in which the goods may be resold ; or

(iii) do not substantially affect the value of the goods; and

(b) that the price is not subject to some condition or consideration for which a value cannot be determined with respect to the value of the goods being valued.

(c) that no part of the proceeds of any subsequent resale, disposal or use of the goods by the buyer will accrue directly or indirectly to the seller, unless an appropriate adjustment can be made in accordance with the provisions of appendix B; and

(d) that the buyer and seller are not related, or where the buyer and seller are related, that the transaction value is accepted for customs purposes under the provisions of paragraph (2).

(2) (a) (i) In cases where the buyer and the seller are related, within the meaning of Appendix C, the transaction value shall be accepted provided that the relationship did not influence the price.

(ii) Where the customs has grounds for considering that the relationship influenced the price of the goods, it shall communicate the grounds in writing to the importer and shall afford reasonable time for the importer to respond thereto.

(b) The customs shall accept the transaction value in a sale between related persons where the importer demonstrates that such value closely approximates to one of the following occurring at or about the same time:

- (i) The transaction value in sales by the same party to unrelated buyers of identical or similar goods sold for export to Kenya.
 - (ii) The customs value of identical or similar goods as determined under the provisions of article 5.
 - (iii) The customs value of identical or similar goods as determined under the provisions of article 6.
- (c) In applying the foregoing tests, due account shall be taken demonstrated differences in commercial levels, quantity levels, the elements enumerated in Appendix B and costs incurred by the seller in sales in which the seller and the buyer are not related that are not incurred by the seller in sales in which the seller and the buyer are related.
- (d) The tests set forth in paragraph (2) (b) shall be applied at the initiative of the importer and only for comparison purposes.

TRANSACTION VALUE OF IDENTICAL GOODS

1(a) If the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under the provisions of article 1, the customs value shall be the transaction of identical goods sold by other sellers for export to Kenya at or about the same time as the goods being valued.

(b) Under this article, the transaction value of goods shall be -

(i) The transaction value of identical goods an a sale at the same commercial level and in substantially the same quantity as the goods being valued; or shall be used to determine the customs value.

(ii) Where no such sale is found, the transaction value of identical goods sold at a different commercial level or in different quantities adjusted to take account of differences attributable to commercial level or to quantity:

Provided that such adjustments are made on the basis of demonstrated evidence which establishes the reasonableness and accuracy of adjustment, whether the adjustment leads to an increase or a decrease in the value.

(2) Where the costs and charges referred to in paragraph (2) of Appendix B are included in the transaction value, an adjustment shall be made to take account of significant differences in such cost and charges between the imported goods and the identical goods in question arising from differences in distances and mode of transport.

(3) If, in applying this article, more than one transaction value of identical goods is found, the lowest such value shall be used to determine the the customs value of the imported goods being valued.

ARTICLE 3

TRANSACTION VALUE OF SIMILAR GOODS.

(1)(a) If the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under the provisions of article 1 or 2, the customs value shall be the transaction of identical goods sold by other sellers for export to Kenya at or about the same time as the goods being valued.

(b) Under this article, the transaction value of goods shall be determined using -

(i) the transaction value of similar goods an a sale at the same commercial level and in substantially the same quantity as the goods being valued; or

(ii) the transaction value of similar goods sold at a different commercial level or in different quantities, adjusted to take account of differences attributable to commercial level or to quantity:

Provided that such adjustments are on basis of demonstrated evidence which establishes the reasonableness and accuracy of adjustment, whether the adjustment leads to an increase or a decrease in the value.

(2) Where the costs and charges referred to in paragraph (2) of Appendix B are included in the transaction value, an adjustment shall be made to take account of significant differences in such cost and charges between the imported goods and the similar goods in question arising from differences in distances and modes of transport.

(3) If, in applying this article, more than one transaction value of similar goods is found, the lowest such value shall be used to determine the the customs value of the imported goods being valued.

ARTICLE 4

Where the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under the provisions of Article 1, 2 or 3, Article 5 and 6 may be applied, and the sequence of application shall be reversed at the request of the importer.

ARTICLE 5

DEDUCTIVE VALUE

(1) (a) If the imported goods or identical or similar imported goods are sold in Kenya in the same condition as they were imported the customs value of the imported goods under the provisions of this article shall be based on the unit price at which the imported goods or identical or similar goods are sold in the greatest aggregate quantity, at or about the time of importation of the goods being appraised, to persons who are not related to the person from whom they buy such goods, subject to deductions for the following:

(i) Either the commissions usually paid or agreed to be paid or the additions usually made for profit and general expenses in connection with sales of such goods or goods of the same class or kind imported in Kenya;

(ii) The usual costs of transport and insurance and associated costs within Kenya territory;

(iii) Where appropriate, the costs and charges referred to in paragraph (2) of appendix B; and

(iv) The customs duties and other national taxes (Value Added Tax, excise etc.) payable in Kenya by reason of importation or the sales of the goods.

(b) If neither the imported goods nor identical nor similar imported goods are sold at or about the same time of importation as the goods being appraised, the customs value shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (1) (a) be based on the unit price at which the imported goods or identical or similar imported goods are sold in Kenya in the same condition as imported at the earliest date after importation of the goods being appraised but before the expiration of ninety days after such importation.

(2) If neither the imported goods nor identical nor similar imported goods are sold in Kenya in the same condition as imported, then, if the importer so requests, the customs value shall be based on the unit price at which the imported goods, after further processing are sold in the greatest aggregate quantity to persons in Kenya who are not related to the persons from whom they buy such goods, due allowance being made for the value by which such processing and the deductions provided for in paragraph 1 (a).

(3) The term "unit price at which goods are sold in the greatest aggregate quantity" means the price at which the greatest number of units is sold in sales to persons who are not related to the persons from whom they buy such goods at the first commercial level after importation at which such sales take place.

ARTICLE 6

COMPUTED VALUE AS FOR DUTY

(1) Subject to provisions under this article, the value for customs purposes shall be based on the compound value. The compound value of goods being appraised is the the aggregate of amounts equal to :

(a) Subject to paragraph (2), the cost, charges and expenses incurred in respect of,

or the value of-

- (i) materials employed in producing the goods being appraised; and
- (ii) the production or other processing of the goods being appraised and determined in the manner prescribed; and
- (b) The amount, determined for the manner prescribed, for profit and general expenses considered together as a whole, that is generally reflected in sales for export into Kenya of goods of the same class or kind as the goods being appraised made by the producer in the country of export.

(2) Without limiting the generality of paragraph (1) (a) the cost, charges, expenses, and value referred to in that paragraph include -

- (i) the cost or value of materials and fabrication or other processing employed in producing the imported goods.
- (ii) an amount for profit and general expenses equal to that usually reflected in sales of goods of the same class or kind as the goods being appraised which are made by producers in the country of exportation for export to Kenya;
- (iii) the cost or value of all other expenses necessary to reflect the adjustment in paragraph (2) of appendix B;

(3) To allow access to any account or other record for the purposes of determining a compound value the importer shall maintain proper books of account, (including sales contract, purchase orders, invoices or agreements) and shall be responsible for the information supplied by the seller of the goods being appraised. However the Commissioner as provided under section 8 of this Act shall verify information supplied by the producer of the goods through the importer in the country of export.

(Appendix A)

(1) If the customs value of imported goods cannot be determined under the provisions of article 1 or 6, the customs value shall be determined using reasonable means consistent with principles and general provisions of the World Trade Organization (WTO) Agreement on Customs Valuation and of Article VII of GATT 1994 and on the basis of available data collected by customs or supplied by the importer.

(2) However, no customs value shall be determined under the provisions of this Act on the basis of-

- (a) the selling price of identical or similar goods produced in Kenya;
- (b) a system which provides for the acceptance for customs purposes the higher of two alternative values;

- (c) the price of goods on the domestic market of the country of exportation;
- (d) the cost of production other than computed values which have been determined for identical or similar goods in accordance with the provisions of method 6;
- (e) the price of goods for export to another country other than Kenya from the country of export;
- (f) minimum customs values, or
- (g) arbitrary or fictitious values.

(3) If the importer so requests, the importer shall be informed in writing of the Customs value determined under the provisions of this Act and the method used to determine such value.

(Appendix B)

(1) In determining the customs value under the provisions of article 1 of this Schedule there shall be added to the price paid or payable for imported goods:

(a) the following, to the extent they are incurred by the buyer but are not included in the transaction price:

- (i) commissions and brokerage, except buying commissions;
- (ii) the cost of containers which are treated as being one for customs purposes with the goods in question;
- (iii) the cost of packing whether for labour or materials.

(b) The value apportioned as appropriate, of the following goods and services where supplied directly or indirectly by the buyer free of charge or at reduced cost for use in connection with the production and sale for export of the imported goods to the extent that such value has not been included in the transaction value:

- (i) materials, components, parts and similar items incorporated in the imported goods;
- (ii) tools, dies, moulds and similar items used in the production of the imported goods;
- (iii) materials consumed in the production of the imported goods, engineering, development, artwork, design work, and plans and sketches undertaken elsewhere in Kenya and necessary for the production of the imported goods;

- (c) Royalties and licence fees related to the goods being valued payable by the buyer, to the extent that such royalties and fees are not include in the transaction value.
 - (d) The value or any part of the proceeds of any subsequent sale, resale, disposal or use of the imported goods that accrues directly or indirectly to the seller;
 - (e) The freight cost or the cost of transport of the imported goods to the port of discharge (point of entry);
 - (f) the handling charges associated with the transport of the goods to the port or place of importation;
 - (g) other costs associated to the transport of the imported goods.
- (2) Additions to the price paid or payable shall be made under this Act only on the basis of objective and quantifiable data.
- (3) No additions shall be made to the price paid or payable in determining the customs value except as provided under this Schedule.

Appendix C

RELATED PERSONS

(1) For the purposes of this Act, persons shall be deemed to be related if-

- (a) They are officers or directors of one another's business;
- (b) they are legally recognized partners in business;
- (c) one is an employee of another;
- (d) one person directly or indirectly owns, controls or holds five percent or more of the outstanding voting stock or shares or both of them;
- (e) one of them directly or indirectly controls the other;
- (f) both of them are directly or indirectly controlled by a third person ; or
- (g) together they directly or indirectly control a third person; or
- (h) they are members of the same family.
- (i) one is sole distributor or sole concessionaire, however described, of the other.

Goods delivered in special circumstances. C.19. C. B. 1. L.N.6/1999

50. If in any special circumstances the owner of perishable or other goods wishes to take delivery of those goods prior to passing entry, he shall apply to the proper officer on Form C.19 and Form C 63 and furnish a bond in Form C.B.1, or such other security as may be required, in such amount as the proper officer may decide; and the importer shall enter the goods within forty-eight hours of taking delivery of them.

Importer to provide special implements for examination.

51. If the quantity of any cinematograph films or other goods of which an officer desires to take an account cannot conveniently be ascertained by the usual implements employed in the examination of goods, the importer shall provide apparatus for the use of the officer to enable him to take an account of them.

Packages found partly empty.

52. If the importer of any goods contained in packages found slack or partly empty when landed desires to fill them from other packages declared on the same entry, he shall apply on the relative entry to the proper officer for permission to do so and shall carry out all instructions of that officer in regard to the filling of the packages and to the disposal of any resultant residue or empty packages.

Packing of goods imported in bulk.

53. If the proper officer so requires, the importer of any goods imported in bulk shall pack those goods into bags or other packages of even net weight before the goods are delivered.

Goods may be examined at private premises.

54. When any goods which have been entered cannot on account of their value, size or packing or for any other reason, be easily examined by the proper officer in a transit shed or a customs area and the importer desires that they be examined at his private premises, he shall apply in writing therefor to the proper officer, who may grant the application under such conditions as he may impose.

Entry not required for goods, etc., imported for temporary use.

55. Entries shall not be required for any vehicles and goods imported in accordance with regulations 222 to 226 inclusive, unless the vehicles or goods are not re-exported.

- (9) Application for a licence under paragraph (5) shall be made in writing to the Commissioner and the licence shall be in Form C.37.
- (10) The Commissioner may grant or refuse to grant a licence, or may revoke an existing licence, without assigning any reasons therefor and may, upon granting a licence, attach such conditions thereto as he shall think fit.

(11) If the quantity of goods in transit is found to be less than that specified in the entry, or the period allowed expires before any part of the goods is exported, the owner shall forth with pay to the proper officer the penalty to the bond, except in the case of deficiency the penalty payable shall be calculated proportionately to the deficiency unless such deficiency is accounted for to the satisfaction of the proper officer:

Provided that the payment of the penalty to the bond under this paragraph shall not absolve the owner from exporting the goods within the period allowed under paragraph (3) (a), in default of which the goods shall be liable to forfeiture unless the Commissioner otherwise directs; and

(12) On production by the owner within the period allowed by the proper officer of the quadruplicate copy of the entry and a copy of the Form C.12, duly certified by the proper officer at the port or place of exportation that the goods described therein have been exported, together with such other evidence as the proper officer may require, the deposit referred to in paragraph (3), shall, on application being made in Form C.36, be refunded to the owner, or the bond cancelled.

(13) A licence fee of five thousand shillings shall be payable per carrier and per vehicle per annum and all licences shall expire on the 31st December in the year of issue but shall be renewable on written application in the discretion of the Commissioner.

(14) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Regulations where the Commissioner is satisfied that the non-production of satisfactory proof of exportation in respect of a part of the goods is due to circumstances beyond the control of the owner, he may refund to the owner so much of the deposit made as he deems to be appropriate to that part of the goods in respect of which such proof has been produced, or release the owner from the obligations of any bond in so far as it concerns that part.

(15) Goods which have entered Kenya overland or by inland waterways shall, on exportation by air or sea, be entered at the port or place of exportation in Form C.35 and Form C 63 in quintuplicate.

(16) If the owner wishes to enter for home use any goods which have been imported in transit and have not been exported and the importation for those goods is not prohibited or restricted, he shall apply in writing to the Commissioner; and the Commissioner, if he is satisfied with the reasons given, may allow entry to be made accordingly and shall refund the deposit given or cancel the bond executed in respect of those goods:

Provided that-

(i) a request under this paragraph shall be granted unless it is made within the period allowed under paragraph (3) (a);

(ii) the goods are physically deposited in a customs area.

(17) This regulation shall apply, mutatis mutandis to passengers' baggage imported in transit, save that the receipt given by the proper officer that a bond has been furnished shall take the place of the entry required under this regulation.

(18) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings and any goods in respect of which the offence is committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

(19) For the purpose of this regulation and regulation 96A -

"carrier" means the person actually transporting transit goods or in-charge of or responsible for the operation of a vehicle;

"Preferential Trade Area" means the Preferential Trade Area for Eastern and Southern African States established by Article 2 of the Treaty.

(20) An agent who fails to reexport transit goods or to cancel bond-in-force within seven days from the date of expiry of the transit period or within such longer period as the Commissioner may, in any particular case, allow shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding one million five hundred thousand shillings.

Goods in transit to or from a Northern corridor State.

96A. (1) In addition to the requirements of regulation 96, goods in transit destined to or consigned from a Northern Corridor State shall be entered in Form C. 35A and Form C 63 in quadruplicate at the customs office of departure prior to the commencement of a transit operation.

(2) In the case of goods destined in transit to a Northern Corridor State the endorsement on the quadruplicate copy of Form C. 35A by the customs authorities in the office of entry in the subsequent transit country that the goods described therein have been received in that country shall be accepted as the necessary evidence in support of the application made in Form C. 36 for refund of the deposit or cancellation of the bond.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation -

"Northern Corridor" means the transport infrastructure and facilities in East Africa served by the port of Mombasa;

"Northern Corridor State" means the countries utilizing the Northern Corridor, namely, Kenya, Uganda, Rwanda and Burundi;

"customs transit operation" means the transport of goods from an office of departure to an office of destination under customs transit;

"office of departure" means customs office at which a customs transit operation commences;

"office of destination" means a customs office at which a customs transit operation is terminated.

L.N.41/1997,
L.N.99/1997.

96B. (1) No goods entered in transit be stored in any premises, pending re-exportation, unless the owner or occupier of the premises holds a valid licence issued in accordance with this regulation, to use such premises as a transit godown.

(2) Any owner or occupier of any premises who permits such premises to be used in contravention of paragraph (1) of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings, and any goods in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

(3) An owner or occupier of any premises intending to use the premises as a transit godown shall, before commencing such use, apply to the Commissioner for a licence.

(4) An application under paragraph (3) shall be in Form C26A and shall be accompanied by a plan of the premises to be licensed and a non-refundable application fee of five thousand shillings.

(5) In considering the application, the Commissioner may require the applicant to supply such additional information in support of the application as the Commissioner may consider necessary.

(6) The Commissioner may, subject to this regulation and to the payment of a fee of one hundred thousand shillings, issue a licence in Form C27A to the applicant, subject to such conditions as he may deem necessary.

(7) A licence issued under paragraph (6) shall expire on the 31st December next following the date of issue but shall be renewable for a further period of twelve months.

(8) The Commissioner may refuse to grant or renew a licence under this regulation if satisfied that -

(a) the information contained in the application therefor is false or untrue in any material particular; or

(b) the premises in respect of which the application is made, do not meet any of the requirements of this regulation.

(9) The Commissioner may cancel or suspend a licence under this regulation if the licensee is in breach of any condition attached to the licence or contravenes any of the requirements of this regulation.

(9A) The Commissioner may revoke the licence granted in respect of a transit godown where -

(a) the licensee of such transit godown fails to account to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for any goods found therein; or

(b) in any calendar year, the average monthly cargo cleared through the transit godown is less than one hundred containers.

(10) No premises shall be licensed as a transit godown unless -

(a) they are located in a designated industrial area; and

(b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the construction and size of the premises are suitable for the storage of transit goods.

(11) No premises licensed as a transit godown shall be used for the storage of goods other than transit goods.

(12) Goods stored in a transit godown shall be subject to the provisions of regulations 96 and 96A.

(13) Where goods stored in a transit godown include sugar, the licensee shall provide a specific portion of the godown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, for the storage of such sugar.

(14) A licensee who uses or permits to be used his transit godown in contravention of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one million five hundred thousand shillings and any goods in respect of which the offence is committed shall be liable to forfeiture.

Entry and bond for transshipment. C. 38. CB. 9. L.N.6/1999

97. (1) Goods reported for transshipment shall be entered in Form C.38 and Form C 63 in quintuplicate, and a security shall be furnished in Form CB.9 or by cash deposit.

(2) Goods which have not been reported for transshipment and have been unloaded may be entered for transshipment in accordance with the provisions of this regulation if -

(a) they have not been entered under provisions of the Act and these Regulations;

(b) the master or agent applies for and obtains the permission of the proper officer to amend the inward report of the importing aircraft or vessel.

(3) Goods reported for transshipment shall be entered and re-shipped within twenty-one days of the date of the commencement of discharge of the importing aircraft or vessel or within such further period as the proper officer may allow.

Transshipment direct.

98. Goods entered for transshipment may, with the permission of the proper officer and subject to such conditions as he may impose, be transhipped direct from the importing aircraft or vessel, if the goods are reported by the importing aircraft or vessel for transshipment

PART VI - IMPORTATION AND EXPORTATION BY POST

Commissioner may waive entries for goods imported by post.

99. (1) When goods are imported in postal articles the Commissioner may accept for the purpose of assessing the duty on those goods, in lieu of the entry required under the provisions of the Act and these Regulations, the customs declaration on the form provided by the postal administration in the country of origin.

(2) In the case of goods exported by post, any form or label affixed to the parcel on which a description of the contents and their value is declared shall be deemed to be the entry required under the provisions of the Act and these Regulations.

Customs declaration on postal articles.

100. (1) A customs declaration made out by the sender of any goods imported by parcel post shall accompany, or be securely attached to, each parcel or to one of the parcels when the goods are packed in more than one parcel.

(2) The declaration shall give a correct description of the quantity or weight, the country of origin and the value of the contents of the parcel or consignment.

(3) If a parcel contains goods of a commercial nature an invoice or a statement showing full particulars of the goods shall be enclosed in the parcel; and if the goods are enclosed in two or more parcels an invoice or a statement showing full particulars of the goods shall be enclosed in one of the parcels which shall be clearly marked "Invoice (or statement) enclosed".

(4) If the invoice or statement cannot be conveniently enclosed inside the parcel it may be securely attached to it.

Production of postal articles.

101. All postal articles shall, if the Commissioner so requires, be produced by an officer of the Post Office to the proper officer for examination, either at the port of arrival in, or departure from, Kenya as the case may be, or to such other place in Kenya as the Commissioner may direct, for the purpose of which the officer of the Post Office shall be deemed to be the agent of the importer or exporter.

Detention of postal articles. Cap.411. L.N.91/2002.

102. In any case where a postal article, or any part of its contents, is found on examination to be conveyed otherwise than in conformity with the provisions of the Posts Office Act, or not to agree with any declaration which accompanies, or is affixed to, that postal article, or with any entry, invoice or other document purporting to relate to its contents and which may be either transmitted therewith or produced by the addressee, that postal article and all its contents shall be deemed to be goods imported or exported contrary to the provisions of the Act and these Regulations and shall be dealt with as provided therein.

103. If the addressee of a postal article neglects to claim that postal article, and if that postal article is not delivered to an alternative addressee or returned to the sender within such time as may be specified in the laws relating to the Post Office, or if the addressee refuses to pay the duty, if any, in respect of the goods contained in that postal article, the Post Office shall send the postal article to the customs for deposit in the customs warehouse, there to be dealt with in accordance with section 34 of the Act.

Duties to be paid to the customs. L.N.91/2002.

104. The duty collected by the Post Office shall be paid to the Commissioner at such times and in such manner as may be notified by him.

PART VII - DEPARTURE AND CLEARANCE OF AIRCRAFT AND VESSELS

Form of clearance of vessel. C.39.

105. The certificate of clearance of a vessel departing to a foreign port shall be in Form C.39.

Outward manifest of vessel. C.2.

106. (1) The outward manifest of a vessel shall be in Form C.2 and shall contain particulars of all cargo shipped in accordance with the description thereof in the relevant bill of lading or freight note, together with the weight or cubic measurement of the cargo in the manner prescribed in regulation 17.

(2) Each page of the outward manifest, other than that on which the declaration is signed, shall be initialled by the master or his agent, and the master or agent shall number and seal together the pages and shall, if required, sign the outward manifest in the presence of the proper officer.

Clearance and general declaration for aircraft.
C.4. C.5. C.4.

107. (1) Before departing to a foreign port the master of an aircraft shall deliver to the proper officer a general declaration in Form C.4 in duplicate: and one copy of that Form, signed by the proper officer, shall be returned to the master and shall be the certificate of clearance of the aircraft.

(2) The report of cargo shall be made in Form C.5 which shall be attached to the general declaration in Form C.4; and each page of the cargo manifest in Form C.5 shall be initialled by the master or his agent, and the master or agent shall number and seal the pages together and seal them to the general declaration and shall, if required, sign that general declaration in the presence of the proper officer.

Shipments short or in excess of manifest.
C.10. C.5. C.2.

108. On application being made in Form C.10 the proper officer may allow the master or agent of an aircraft or vessel to amend the cargo manifest in Form C.5 or the outward manifest in Form C.2, as the case may be, in respect of any goods found to have been shipped short or in excess of the manifest.

Separate manifest for each port. C.2.

109. (1) A separate outward manifest in Form C.2 and, if required, a passenger list, shall be delivered at each port or place of departure in Kenya and if no cargo is loaded or no passengers embark at any port or place, a nil Form C.2 or passenger list shall be delivered.

C 4. C.5.

(2) A separate general declaration in Form C.4 and cargo manifest in Form C.5 for each aircraft shall be delivered at each port or place of departure in Kenya, but if no cargo is loaded a nil Form C.5 need not be delivered.

PART VIII - CARRIAGE OF GOODS COASTWISE

Coastwise clearance and Transire. C.41. C.39.

110. The transire for coastwise cargo carried by aircraft or vessels under section 82 of the Act, and the combined clearance and transire for coasting aircraft or vessels and their cargoes under section 84 of the Act, shall be in Form C.41:

Provided that in the case of aircraft or vessels departing to foreign ports via a port or place in Kenya, a certificate of clearance in Form C.39 shall be required.

Separate transires for each port.

111. When cargo is loaded in an aircraft or vessel for carriage coastwise to more than one port or place, separate transires, in triplicate, shall be prepared for each port or place.

Unloading and examination of coastwise cargo.

112. (1) Coastwise cargo shall not be loaded on an aircraft or vessel for carriage coastwise or removed from a customs area or a transit shed after it has been unloaded or landed without the prior authority of the proper officer.

(2) Any person who contravenes this regulation shall be guilty of an offence.

Sufferance wharves and unapproved places. C. 12.

113. Where the master of a coasting aircraft or vessel wishes to proceed to a sufferance wharf, or any place other than an approved place of loading or unloading, to load or unload coastwise cargo, he shall apply to the proper officer for permission in Form C.12.

Accommodation and transport to be provided.

114. (1) The proper officer may grant permission under regulation 113 subject to such conditions and directions as he may see fit to impose, and subject to the master or his agent defraying the cost of or providing accommodation in accordance with section 170 of the Act and transport overland or by sea, as the proper officer may decide, from and to his proper port, for each officer whose services the proper officer may deem necessary at the sufferance wharf or other place.

(2) The proper officer may require the master of an aircraft or vessel proceeding to a sufferance wharf or other place to deposit with him in advance a sum sufficient to cover the expenses referred to in paragraph (1).

Transire to be delivered before loading or unloading.

115. Save with the written permission of the proper officer, no coastwise cargo shall be loaded on, or unloaded from, a vessel of less than two hundred and fifty tons register, until the master has delivered to the proper officer the transire relating to the cargo to be loaded or unloaded.

Amendment of transire.

116. The proper officer may permit the master or agent of an aircraft or vessel on application to amend the transire if any cargo is found to be in excess or short of that described therein.

General transires. C.42.

117. General transires in Form C.42 may, upon application, be granted by the proper officer for periods not exceeding six months to vessels trading regularly in local produce between certain specified ports under the following conditions -

(a) the original general transire shall be carried on board, the vessel and shall be available for inspection by any officer at any time;

(b) no restricted or prohibited goods or goods which have been entered into home use shall be carried except as provided for in subparagraph (e);

(c) within twenty-four hours of arrival at any port and before he allows any goods to be unloaded, the master shall deliver to the proper officer a correct account, in duplicate, of the cargo to be discharged at that port in respect of which he holds a general transire;

(d) the master of a vessel shall not carry any goods on which royalties are payable unless he has first obtained a pass note issued by the proper officer in respect of those goods; and restricted or prohibited goods and goods which have been entered into home use found on board a vessel having a general transire (except as provided for in subparagraph (e)), shall be seized;

(e) if the master of a vessel wishes to ship restricted or prohibited goods or goods which have been entered into home use, he shall deliver to the proper officer at the port at which the goods are loaded a transire in triplicate in respect of those goods and shall comply with regulations 110 to 112.

Pass note for duty paid goods carried coastwise. 118. Duty paid goods shipped from one port in Kenya for subsequent discharge within Kenya shall be produced to the proper officer prior to shipment; and the officer shall, on request, issue in respect of the goods produced to him a pass note which shall be delivered to the proper officer at the port of discharge as a warrant for free admission of the goods specified therein.

PART IX - REGISTERED USERS

Application for registration. C. 40. 119. Any person who wishes to be a registered user for purposes of an order under section 145 of the Act shall apply in Form C.40.

Acceptance of registration. 120. (1) If the application is completed to his satisfaction and the premises including the operations therein meet with his approval, the Commissioner shall -

(a) register the applicant as a registered user; and

(b) register the premises to be used by the registered user.

(2) Should the Commissioner decline to register an applicant and his premises in accordance with paragraph (1), he shall advise the applicant accordingly.

Validity of registration. 121. Registration under regulation 120 shall become void three months after the date of registration, or on such other date as the Minister may in any particular case direct, unless an appropriate order is first made, in which case registration shall lapse at the end of the period of validity of the order.

Storage and use. 122. (1) The Commissioner may require a registered user -

(a) to keep any goods in respect of which an application for refund of duty is to be made on registered premises and in such room, store or other place as may be specified; and

(b) to provide on the registered premises for the use of an officer such facilities as may be necessary for the inspection, weighing or other checking of goods in respect of which no application for refund of duty is to be made.

(2) Goods on which refund of duty is intended to be applied for as declared on the prescribed import entry shall not be removed from or used outside the registered premises, or used for purposes other than those specified in the relative order, except with the written consent of the Commissioner who may refuse to grant consent without assigning a reason therefor.

Registered user's stock book. 123. (1) A registered user shall keep a customs stock book in such form as may be approved by the Commissioner showing full particulars of all goods in respect of which refund of duty will be claimed and of the use of those goods.

(2) Stock and accounts relating to the goods shall be kept in such a manner that they can be readily checked by the proper officer.

Monthly returns. 124. Every registered user shall transmit to the Commissioner within seven days after the end of each month a certified copy of the entries in the customs stock book relating to the preceding month.

Manufacturing operations. 125. A registered user shall, if required by the Commissioner, carry out under the supervision of the proper officer at such reasonable times as the Commissioner may deem necessary, any manufacturing operations in his registered premises in which goods subject to refund of duty are being used.

Books, documents, etc.

126. The premises of the registered user together with the books, documents and stocks shall be accessible at all times for inspection by the proper officer.

Commissioner may dispense with certain requirements.

127. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, the Commissioner may, in order to meet the exigencies of any special case, dispense, wholly or in part, with any requirements imposed thereunder on a registered user.

Control of goods entering the export processing zone.

127A. (1) All goods imported from foreign territory into the export processing zone through the customs territory, shall be entered in Form CPZ1 and Form C 63 in sextuplicate; and a bond in Form CPZB shall be given.

(2) All goods shall be consigned to the proper officer in charge of the relevant export processing zone where goods are destined in sealed containers, boxes or vehicles except in the case of exceptionally bulky loads which cannot be contained in such containers or vehicles, and two copies of the entry in Form CPZ1 and Form C 63 shall accompany the goods.

(3) Examination of goods shall be carried out at the premises of the enterprise or within the export processing zone where examination facilities are provided except that should the Commissioner have any reasonable cause, he may direct a proper officer to carry out examination of such goods at the point of importation within the customs territory or before entry into the export processing zone.

(4) One copy of the Form CPZ1 and Form C 63 duly certified by the proper officer as to the receipt of the goods in the export processing zone shall be returned to the owner for presentation at the port of importation for the purpose of cancellation of the security bond.

(5) Goods imported into the export processing zone from the customs territory shall be entered in Form C. 29 and Form C 63 in sextuplicate by the exporter.

(6) All export processing zone enterprises shall be required to maintain stock records of the raw materials as well as the finished product in the format set out in Form CPZ3 or other approved format.

(7) Every export processing zone enterprise shall maintain stock control records and shall produce the records for inspection by the proper officer.

(8) If, on inspection of the records and physical stocktaking, goods are found missing and the enterprise cannot give a satisfactory explanation to the proper officer, then the enterprise shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand shillings or twice the amount of duty payable on the missing goods, whichever is the higher.

(9) Every export processing zone enterprise shall submit monthly returns on stocks held in the Form CPZ3 to the proper officer.

(10) All goods intended for export from the export processing zone shall be entered in Form CPZ2 and Form C 63 in sextuplicate; and a bond in Form CPZB shall be given.

(11) All such goods shall be produced to the proper officer for the purpose of examination and of sealing of the containers, box or vehicle after which the proper officer shall allow the goods to leave the export processing zone; and two copies of the entry shall accompany the goods to the port of exportation within the customs territory.

(12) No further examination of the goods shall be carried out at the final port of exportation within the customs territory, unless the proper officer finds the seals tampered with, or on any other reasonable grounds.

(13) One copy of the Form CPZ2 and Form C 63 duly certified by the proper officer as to the exportation of the goods, shall be returned to the owner for presentation to the proper officer at the export processing zone for the purpose of the cancellation of the security bond.

(14) Goods exported to the customs territory from the export processing zone shall be treated in the same manner as if such goods were imported from a foreign country and shall be entered in Form C.15 and Form C 63 in sextuplicate.

(15) Any goods being moved from one export processing zone to another export processing zone shall be entered in Form CPZ2 and Form C 63 and the bond in Form CPZB shall be given.

(16) One copy of the Form CPZ2 and Form C 63 duly certified by the proper officer at the receiving export processing zone shall be returned to the owner for presentation to the proper officer at the despatching export processing zone for the purpose of cancellation of the security bond.

(17) Where goods are being removed from one enterprise to another enterprise, within the same export processing zone, then the enterprise removing such goods shall advise the proper officer accordingly.

(18) The plant, machinery and equipment may be removed for repairs, servicing or maintenance from an export processing zone to the customs territory.

(19) The plant, machinery and equipment shall be accorded temporary importation facilities in the customs territory and shall be entered in Form C.43 in quadruplicate and a bond in Form CB. 10 shall be given.

(20) Where, under these Regulations, security is required to be given, then the security may be given to the satisfaction of the proper officer -

(a) by bond in such sum and subject to such conditions and such sureties as the proper officer may reasonably require;

(b) by cash deposit; or

(c) partly by bond and partly by cash deposit.

(21) For the purpose of this regulation, a general bond executed by an export processing zone developer or operator shall be accepted to cover movements of imports and exports between the enterprises within a particular export processing zone and the ports of importation or exportation including movement between export processing zones except that any enterprise may execute a bond to cover its own goods in transit.

(22) As far as possible, disposal or destruction of wastes and residues resulting from the manufacturing process shall be carried out within the export processing zone under the supervision of the proper officer.

(23) If there are no proper facilities of disposal within the export processing zone, the wastes may be destroyed in the customs territory on application to the proper officer.

(24) After the destruction of the wastes, the proper officer shall issue a certificate of destruction.

(25) In case of sale of wastes or rejects in the customs territory, the movements of such wastes or rejects shall be subjects to the normal importation procedures in the customs territory.

(26) All personnel and vehicles entering in or going out of any export processing zone shall be subject of search by the proper officer.

Specification for vans transporting dutiable goods.

127B. (1) The following specification shall be complied with before a locked van is approved for the transportation of dutiable goods -

(a) place for storage of goods shall be totally covered;

(b) the body of the vehicle shall be made of steel or fibreglass;

(c) only one door shall be allowed and the door shall be equipped with a facility for locking and sealing;

(d) iron grilles shall be fixed to the glass windows of the vehicles; and

(e) the section for the driver and passengers shall be separated from the storage area.

(2) The locked van approved for the transportation of dutiable goods shall not have secret compartments and shall be inspected and have a valid permit issued by the proper officer.

Transportation of small packages and boxes.

127C. (1) Small packages and samples may be transported in locked boxes made of steel sealed by customs in any vehicle and the proper officer assigned to an export processing zone may approve the use of locked boxes if satisfied that the boxes are suitable for the transportation of dutiable goods.

(2) For the purposes of identification, locked boxes shall be given serial numbers by the approving officer and the number and name of the export processing zone enterprises shall be written on locked boxes in indelible ink.

PART X - CONTROL OF MANUFACTURE. OF EXCISABLE GOODS OTHER THAN SPIRITS

Licensing of Premises and Plant

Application for licence to manufacture. E.1 .
EB.1 E. 2. L.N.91/2001

128. (1) Application for a licence to manufacture goods shall be made in Form E.1 in duplicate to the Commissioner.

L.N. 48/2004

(2) When the Commissioner has approved the entry of premises made by the applicant in accordance with refutation 130, the applicant shall -

(a) pay a licence fee of fifty thousand shillings annually:

Provided that-

(i) in the case of breweries, wineries, distilleries, denaturers, compounders, rectifiers, and tobacco and cigarette manufacturers, the fee shall be one hundred thousand shillings annually; and

(ii) in the case of a licence issued in the course of the year, the remaining part of that year shall be deemed to be a full year.

(b) furnish such security as the Commissioner may require in Form EBS.

(3) A licence shall be in Form E.2.

3.

129. (1) Any licensee who wishes -

(a) to transfer his licence to any other person;

(b) to transfer his factory to any other place;

(c) to manufacture another class of excisable goods in his factory on his ceasing to manufacture therein the class of excisable goods specified in the licence, shall make application in Form E.3 in duplicate to the Commissioner.

(2) The fee for the transfer of a licence from a licensee to any other person shall be two hundred shillings.

Entry of premises and plant. E.4. L.N. 48/2004

130. (1) When the application for a licence has been approved the applicant shall furnish the Commissioner with -

(a) an entry in Form E.4 in duplicate in which the applicant shall declare the particulars of his factory required by section 97 of the Act;

(b) a plan, in duplicate, of each building, room or place to which the application for a licence relates and the situation of that building, room or place in relation to other buildings, rooms or places in the vicinity:

(c) specifications and particulars, in duplicate, of each item of plant to be used in the manufacture, preparation for sale, or storage, of materials or excisable goods.

(1A) No premises shall be licenced as an excise factory unless they are located in a designated industrial area.

(1B) The Commissioner may revoke any licence issued in respect of an excise factory where, in any calendar year, the average monthly output in duties and taxes is less than five hundred thousand shillings.

(2) Where the application is for the renewal of a licence and there have not been any alterations in the buildings, rooms, places or items of plant since the issue of the previous licence, the details referred to in paragraph (1) need not be furnished.

Definition of licensee.

130A. In this part, "licensee" means a licensee other than a brewer.

Identification of an excise factory.
L.N.63/2003

130B. (1) An excise factory shall be distinguished by an identification number allocated by the Commissioner.

(2) The words "CUSTOMS EXCISE FACTORY" and the number allocated to the factory shall be clearly marked on the principal entrance to the factory or such other prominent place as the proper officer may approve and shall be removed when the factory ceases to manufacture excisable goods.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence.

Provisions Relating to the Manufacture of Beer

Brewing book. E.5.

131. A brewing book shall be in Form E.4.

Declaration of brands of beer.

132. (1) No brewer shall bottle or otherwise pack any beer for sale unless -

(a) he has made a declaration in writing to the Commissioner in respect thereof in such form and containing such particulars as the Commissioner may require; and

(b) the Commissioner has approved the prescribed number of litres per container of beer.

(2) In this regulation -

"container" means any case, carton or other container in which bottled or canned beer is packed or any keg, drum or cask containing beer for subsequent sale;

"prescribed litres" means the litres prescribed in writing by the Commissioner.

Production accounts.

133. Every brewer shall, at the close of business each day and within twenty-one days after the end of every month or, in both cases, within such longer period of time as may be allowed by the proper officer and in such form as the Commissioner may require -

(a) prepare an account of the production of beer bottled or packed for sale on that day; and

(b) prepare and submit to the proper officer a monthly production summary in respect of that month.

Determination of original gravity.

134. (1) The gravity of any liquid at any time shall be ascertained by the use of a saccharometer of a type approved by the Commissioner.

(2) Where, for the purposes of these Regulations, it is necessary to ascertain the original gravity of worts in which fermentation has commenced, then that gravity shall be ascertained in the following manner -

(a) a sample shall be taken from any part of the worts and a definite quantity thereof by measure at the temperature of 15.55 degrees Centigrade shall be distilled;

(b) the distillate and residue shall each be made up with distilled water to the original measure of the quantity before distillation and the gravity of each shall be ascertained;

(c) the number of degrees by which the gravity of the distillate is less than the gravity of distilled water shall be deemed the spirit indication of the distillate;

(d) the degrees of original gravity standing opposite to the spirit indication in the table set out in the Second Schedule added to the gravity of the residue shall be deemed to be the original gravity of the worts.

Removal of beer in bulk.

135. No person shall transfer any beer in bulk to another brewery or licensed premises for bottling or filling unless prior notice thereof has been given in the brewing book at least twenty-four hours before the transfer is made; and a brewer shall maintain a record of transfers in such form as the Commissioner may require.

(a) such wine is packed in securely closed bottles, or other immediate containers approved by the Commissioner, of uniform size; and

(b) the bottle or other immediate container has printed on its main label the name of the manufacturer and the place of manufacture.

(2) If any wine contains any imported wine which has been mixed therewith the manufacturer shall declare on the main label of each bottle or other immediate container the quantity of imported wine expressed as a percentage of the total quantity of wine in each bottle or other immediate container.

(3) The quantities of wine to be recorded in the stock book (Form E. 7) and other records required to be kept by the manufacturer shall be expressed in litres and fractions thereof and related to the number of bottles and cases or other approved containers.

Conditions for manufacture of matches.

148. (1) In this regulation -

"container" means a tin, box or other container in which matches are packed for sale;

"packet" means a multiple of containers packed together to form one unit for sale;

"package" means a multiple of packets packed together to form one unit for sale.

(2) A licensee shall not manufacture any matches until -

(a) he has made a declaration in writing to the Commissioner in respect thereof in such form and containing such particulars as the Commissioner may require; and

(b) the Commissioner has approved the declaration.

(3) Every person licensed to manufacture matches shall keep -

(a) an account in a packing book in a form approved by the Commissioner; and

(b) a stock book in the Form E.7A.

(4) The licensee shall each day enter in the packing book an account of -

(a) all matches manufactured in his factory on that day;

(b) the date on which the matches are packed into the container;

(c) the number of the gross of the containers packed, classified according to the number of matches in each container;

(d) such further particulars as the proper officer may require.

(5) The licensee shall keep the packing book in some part of the factory so that it shall at all times be available for inspection by the proper officer.

(6) No person shall remove any matches from a factory until an account thereof has been duly entered in the packing book.

(7) The licensee shall enter in the stock book daily, and at such other times as may be required by the proper officer, full particulars of -

(a) all matches packed into cases in which they are to be deposited in the stock room; and

(b) the separate quantities of any matches to be delivered from the stock room, with the date of manufacture and delivery, before they are so delivered.

(8) The licensee shall balance the account in the stock book at the end of each month.

(9) A monthly excise account in duplicate, in the Form E.9, shall accompany the transcript required to be submitted by the licensee.

Marking of packages containing matches.

148A (1) The licensee shall, if the Commissioner so requires, mark each package in which matches are packed with -

(a) the number of containers in each packet;

(b) the number of packets in each package; and each case with -

(a) the number of packages therein;

(b) the number of gross of the containers therein;

(c) a factory number or distinguishing letters.

Provision of secure compartment for matches.

148B (1) If the Commissioner so requires the licensee of a factory in which matches are manufactured shall provide in the factory, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, a secure compartment partitioned off from the rest of the factory for the storing of matches in containers, packets or packages which have not been packed in cases and deposited in the stock room before the close of the day.

(2) The secure compartment shall be so constructed that it can be locked by a responsible employee of the licensee and, if necessary, by the proper officer.

(3) Where the licensee is required to provide a secure compartment, he shall at the close of each day remove to the secure compartment all matches which are in containers, packets or partly filled packages, which have not been packed into cases and deposited in the stock room.

(4) All matches in the secure compartment shall -

(a) be arranged and stored in such a manner as to allow a proper officer easy access thereto; and

(b) be produced, on demand, to a proper officer.

Offences.

148C. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of regulations 140 to 148 inclusive shall be guilty of an offence.

Provisions Relating to all Excisable Goods Manufactured Under this Part

149. Delivery of certain excisable goods from stock room.

150. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), no person shall deliver, or cause or allow to be delivered, from a stock room any excisable goods except during the following hours - Days other than Saturdays,

PART XI - DISTILLATION, COMPOUNDING, RECTIFICATION AND DENATURING OF SPIRITS

General Provisions

Application for licence. E.1.

151. (1) Application for a licence to manufacture or denature spirits shall be made in duplicate in Form E. 1 to the Commissioner.

(2) At the same time as applying for a licence the applicant shall make application to the Commissioner for approval of his processes under regulation 152 and for approval of his entry of premises under regulation 153.

(3) When -

(a) the Commissioner has approved the applicant's processes and entry of premises; and

(b) the applicant has paid the licence fee of three thousand shillings per annum or eight thousand seven hundred shillings triennially;

Provided that for a licence issued in the course of the year, the remaining part of that year shall be treated as a full year;

(c) has furnished such security as the Commissioner may require in Form EBS, the Commissioner shall issue a licence in Form E.2:

Provided that a distiller shall not be required to pay any further fee for the grant of a licence to rectify or denature spirits manufactured by himself.

Approval of processes.

152. For the purpose of obtaining the Commissioner's approval of his processes the applicant shall -

(a) make written application to the Commissioner for approval of his processes and of all appliances, stills, vats, vessels, utensils, pipes and fittings which he intends to use; and

(b) deliver with the application a description of all his processes, appliances, stills, vats, vessels, utensils, pipes and fittings together with a drawing or model distinctly showing the course, construction and use of all fixed pipes to be used, and of every branch thereof and cock thereon, and every place, vessel or utensil with which any such pipe connects.

Approval of entry of premises. E.4.

153. (1) For the purpose of obtaining the Commissioner's approval of his entry of premises the applicant shall make written application for approval and shall accompany the application with -

(a) an entry in Form E1 in duplicate in which the applicant shall declare the particulars of his factory required by section 97 (1) of the Act; and

(b) a plan in duplicate of each building, room or place to which the application for a licence relates, and the situation of each building, room or place in relation to other buildings, rooms or places in the vicinity.

(2) No person shall, save with the written permission of the Commissioner -

(a) make entry of a room or place for more than one purpose;

(b) use any room or place for a purpose other than that for which it has been entered; or

(c) withdraw his entry while there remains in any place mentioned therein any still or any materials prepared or fit for distillation, or any spirits.

Renewal of licence.

154. A licensee wishing to renew his licence shall make application in the same manner as if for a new licence:

Provided that the licensee shall not be required to make application for approval of his processes or entry of premises unless there has been any alteration therein since the issue or renewal of the existing or previous licence.

Transfer of licence.

155. (1) Any licensee who wishes -

(a) to transfer his licence to any other person; or

(b) to transfer his factory to any other place; or

(c) to manufacture any other class of excisable goods in his factory on his ceasing to manufacture spirits therein, shall make application in Form E.3 in duplicate to the Commissioner.

(2) At the same time as making application under paragraph (1) the applicant shall make application to the Commissioner for approval of his processes and entry of premises in all respects as required by regulation 151 (2):

Provided that where the application is for the transfer of a licence to some other person, the application shall be accompanied by an application by the proposed transferee for the approval of his processes and entry of premises in all respects as required by regulation 151 (2).

(3) Where -

(a) the Commissioner has approved the processes and entry of premises in respect of which application is made under paragraph (2) for his approval; and

(b) the application is for transfer of a licence to some other person and that person has paid a fee of two thousand shillings for the transfer and has furnished such security as the Commissioner may require in Form EBS, the Commissioner shall, by endorsement on the licence, allow the transfer.

(4) Notwithstanding this regulation, where a distiller is also a rectifier or denaturer, his licence to rectify or denature shall not be transferred separately from his licence to distil.

Distiller who is rectifier or denaturer.

156. Where a distiller who is also a rectifier or denaturer wishes to rectify or denature spirits manufactured by him, either in the factory in which they were distilled or in another factory adjacent thereto, he shall -

(a) make such structural alterations to any of those premises; and

(b) provide such additional equipment, as the Commissioner shall deem necessary for the exercise of proper revenue control.

Placing of vessels and utensils.

157 A licensee shall, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, place and keep each vessel and utensil on his premises in a convenient situation easy of access for official examination and account, and so fixed as to admit of the contents thereof being accurately gauged.

Securing of premises and plant.

158 (1) A licensee shall provide all such fittings as may be required by the proper officer for the attachment of revenue locks for secure his factory and plant for excise purposes.

(2) A licensee shall not use any still, vessel, utensil, pipe or cock unless it can be secured to the satisfaction of the Commissioner.

Restriction on variation of process and alteration of plant.

159. A licensee shall not vary any process or alter, move, or add to the stills, vessels, utensils, pipes or fittings in his factory unless he has given prior notice in writing in that behalf to the proper officer, delivering to him such further drawing, model or description as may be required, and has obtained the Commissioner's approval of all such variations, alterations, movements or additions.

Plant not to be so made as to permit use in manner other than approved.

160. A licensee shall not cause or procure any cover, fastening, cock, plug, pump or pipe to be so made or used that any vessel or utensil may be employed, opened, removed, filled or emptied in any manner not approved by the Commissioner.

Distillers

Placing of vessels and pipes; painting of pipes.

161. A distiller shall, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner -

(a) fix and place every pipe used by him, unless used exclusively for the discharge of water or spent wash, so as to be capable of being examined for the whole of its length; and

(b) if so required, paint and maintain so painted, in different colours, pipes used for different purposes.

Restriction on use and possession of certain materials.

162. Except with the consent of the Commissioner and subject to such conditions as he may impose, a distiller shall not -

(a) use in the brewing or making of wort or wash any material of such a nature that the gravity of the wort or wash produced therefrom cannot be ascertained by an approved

saccharomeier; or

(b) have in his possession any wort, wash, low wines, feints, spirits or fermented liquor not brewed, made or distilled in his distillery.

Conditions governing removal of sugar and molasses from store.

163. (1) A distiller shall, before removing for use in the manufacture of spirits any sugar or molasses from the place entered as a sugar store or molasses store, give the proper officer written notice specifying the time of intended removal, and the quantity to be removed.

(2) At the time so specified the distiller shall convey the specified sugar or molasses immediately from the sugar store or molasses store to the mash tun or other entered vessel, to be there immediately used in the manufacture of spirits.

(3) The distiller shall forthwith deposit again in the sugar store or molasses store all sugar or molasses removed and not used, and shall immediately give the proper officer written advice of the quantity so deposited.

Distiller to give notice of intention to brew wort.

164. A distiller shall, at least six days before beginning to brew wort or, if he has discontinued wort for more than one month, before recommencing to brew wort, give to the proper officer a written notice specifying the day on which he intends so to brew or to recommence brewing.

Distilling periods.

165. (1) For the purpose of the charge to duty on spirits made in the distillery, a distiller shall conduct his distilling operations in periods which shall terminate at intervals not exceeding a month from the date of commencement of brewing or from the date of termination of the last preceding period, whichever is the later.

(2) A distiller shall give to the proper officer written notice of his intention to terminate a period, with a declaration in an approved form, specifying the wort or wash to be included therein, and except as otherwise approved the wort or wash shall thereupon be distilled and the stills shall be worked off and notice given to the proper officer to take account of the feints and spirits produced.

(3) A period shall be deemed to terminate when all the wort or wash specified in the distiller's declaration has been distilled and the feints and spirits produced therefrom conveyed into their respective receivers.

Distiller to give notice of intention to mash or brew.

166. A distiller shall, before he mashes any materials or brews for making wort, give to the proper officer written notice specifying the day and hour when the mashing or brewing is to be commenced.

Distiller to make declaration on completing collection of wort.

167. Immediately the collection of wort in any fermenting back is completed the distiller shall deliver to the proper officer a written declaration in an approved form specifying -

(a) the number of the back in which the wort is contained;

(b) the true original gravity of the wort; and

(c) the quantity thereof as measured by the number of dry millimetres, that is to say, by the number of millimetres between the dipping place of the back and the surface of the wort contained therein, and after the declaration has been delivered the quantity or gravity shall not be increased except as provided for in these Regulations.

Restriction on adding of yeast, etc., to wort or

168. No yeast or other matter capable of causing fermentation shall be added to wort

- wash. or wash in any vessel other than a fermenting back except with the consent of the Commissioner and subject to such conditions as he may specify.
- Distiller to give notice before making bub, etc. 169. A distiller shall, before beginning to make bub or any other composition for promoting the fermentation of wort or wash, give to the proper officer written notice, specifying the time when, and the vessel in which, the composition is to be made, the fermenting back into which it is to be put, and the quantity to be put into the back.
- Distiller to make a declaration before removing wash from a fermenting back. 170. (1) A distiller shall not remove any wash from a fermenting back unless immediately prior to removal he has given to the proper officer a declaration in an approved form specifying -
- (a) the vessels from and to which the wash is to be removed;
 - (b) the day and hour at which the removal is to be commenced; and
 - (c) the gravity of the wash at that time.
- (2) If a distiller removes wash to a wash charger other than for immediate distillation he shall immediately before commencing to remove the wash give to the proper officer a further declaration specifying the same particulars as are required by paragraph (1).
- Conditions governing mixing of wort or wash. 171. (1) A distiller shall not mix wort or wash, other than wash removed for immediate distillation, unless -
- (a) he has previously delivered the declaration required by regulation 165;
 - (b) the mixing takes place in a fermenting back or wash charger; and
 - (c) he has delivered to the proper officer written notice of his intention to mix the wort or wash, specifying the vessels which will be affected.
- (2) Immediately after the mixing has been completed the distiller shall deliver to the proper officer a declaration specifying, as regards each vessel affected, the dip and original gravity immediately before the operation and the dip and gravity immediately after the operation.
- Restriction on disposing of wash. 172. (1) A distiller shall not dispose of wash removed from a fermenting back for the recovery of yeast except in such manner as may be approved by the Commissioner.
- (2) A distiller shall give written notice to the proper officer specifying the quantity and original gravity of the wash so removed and the vessel from which it has been removed.
- (3) The Commissioner may make such allowance as in his opinion is reasonable from any charge for duty arising from the wort or wash made, on production of proof to his satisfaction that the charge arises wholly or in part on account of the removal of wash for the separation of yeast
- Distiller not to possess certain wort or wash . 173. A distiller shall not have in his possession any wort or wash the original gravity of which, as ascertained from any sample thereof taken from a fermenting back or wash charger, differs by more than two degrees from the original gravity thereof as declared by him.
- Ascertainment of gravity of wort or wash. 174. (1) The gravity of wort or wash shall be ascertained by an approved saccharometer.

(2) When fermentation has commenced in any wort or wash so that the original gravity of the wort from which the wort or wash is made cannot be ascertained by an approved saccharometer, the gravity may be determined as provided for in the case of beer in accordance with regulation 134:

Provided that the sample taken may first be cleared from sediment by filtration.

Conditions governing disposal of feints, etc.

175. (1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation as to feints remaining from a previous distillation, or as may be approved in any case, a distiller shall keep all the produce of a period unmixed with any other matter and separate from all other produce until account has been taken by the proper officer.

(2) Any feints produced by and remaining from a previous distillation may be mixed with the low wines or feints produced by a subsequent distillation and the process of redistilling feints may be repeated as often as the distiller thinks fit.

(3) Not less than four hours before the removal of any low wines or feints from a receiver, a distiller shall give to the proper officer written notice specifying the day and hour of intended removal and immediately after the officer has taken account of the contents of the receiver they shall be removed forthwith into the proper charger:

Provided that where a distiller has secured his low wines and feints pumps to the satisfaction of the Commissioner he may at any time without notice remove low wines and feints from the receiver to a charger and redistill them.

Distiller to furnish return at end of distilling period.

176. At the end of every period the distiller shall sign and deliver to the proper officer a return, in duplicate, in an approved form specifying -

- (a) the quantity of each description of material used in making wort or wash during the period;
- (b) the quantity of wort or wash decreased or distilled during the period;
- (c) the quantity of spirits computed at proof produced during the period;
- (d) the quantity of feints remaining at the end of the period.

Removal and warehousing of spirits.

177. (1) A distiller shall not less than four hours before he intends to remove any spirits from a receiver for -

- (a) warehousing in his distiller's warehouse or in accordance with regulation 178: or
- (b) delivery in accordance with regulation 179, give written notice to the proper officer requiring him to take account of those spirits, specifying the day and hour of the intended removal, the vessel in which the spirits are contained and particulars of the purpose of removal, and immediately after the officer has taken an account of the contents they shall be dealt with in accordance with the notice.

(2) When those spirits are to be warehoused, and are contained in a receiver which is also entered as a warehouse vat, it shall be deemed to be warehoused immediately the account has been taken by the officer.

(3) The quantity found in the receiver shall in all cases be deemed to be the quantity warehoused or delivered.

(4) All the spirits produced in a period shall be warehoused or delivered from the entered premises in accordance with regulation 179 within ten days from the end of that period.

Receivers or vats used for storage of certain spirits.

178. With the consent of the Commissioner and subject to such conditions as he may impose a distiller may keep receivers or vats in any approved place on his entered premises for the storage of spirits which are subsequently to be delivered -

- (a) duty-free for an approved purpose and by an approved user;
- (b) for rectification or compounding by a rectifier;
- (c) for denaturing;
- (d) for home use after warehousing for at least three years:
- (e) for exportation, and while those spirits are stored in that receiver or vat they shall be deemed to be in the distiller's warehouse.

Delivery of spirits from a distillery. L.N. 48/2004

179. (1) Spirits shall not be delivered from the distillery in which they were distilled or from the distiller's warehouse except on payment of duty:

Provided that spirits intended for home use shall be warehoused by the distiller for a period of three years prior to delivery.

(2) Except as permitted by the Commissioner all spirits delivered in accordance with paragraph (1) shall be accompanied by an approved removal permit in Form E8 and shall be subject to such limitations and conditions as may be specified in that permit.

(3) The distiller shall give written notice in an approved form to the proper officer before any spirits are delivered in accordance with this regulation and shall attach to the notice any removal permit or other document which may be required by these Regulations to cover that delivery.

(4) Deliveries in accordance with this regulation shall only be made in cask's or containers or by other means approved by the Commissioner and secured to his satisfaction.

(5) The Commissioner may limit the hours during which deliveries may be made in accordance with this regulation.

(6) A distiller shall submit to the proper officer the payment for the spirit delivered from his warehouse together with -

- (a) a monthly excise record in the form approved by the Commissioner; and
- (b) a monthly record of production.

Racking of spirits.

180. A distiller shall comply with the following provisions when first racking spirits from receivers or vats into casks or containers (excluding containers attached to and forming parts of vehicles) to be used for deliveries in accordance with regulation 179 -

(a) he shall before the spirits are racked give notice thereof in writing to the proper officer;

(b) he shall not, except with the permission of the Commissioner, reduce spirits with water unless the reduction takes place prior to or at the time of -

(i) their removal from the warehouse vat for immediate delivery: or

(ii) their first racking into cask:

(c) he shall cause to be legibly cut, branded or painted with oil paint on the outside of each end of every cask -

(i) the distiller's name;

(ii) the name of the distillery or place;

(iii) the mark and number of the cask;

(iv) the number of litres the cask is capable of containing, and if that number is less than three hundred and fifty the quarters of a litre of capacity above the number of entire litres; and

(v) the year in which it is warehoused;

(d) he shall cause to be consecutively numbered all the casks warehoused in any one year, beginning with number one in that year;

(e) he shall arrange the casks in the warehouse so that the marks thereon are at all times easily visible.

Control applied to distiller's warehouse.

181. The Commissioner may specify -

(a) the type and description of vessels and other containers which may be used in a distiller's warehouse;

(b) such conditions as he may consider necessary to ensure proper excise control in respect of operations in a distiller's warehouse;

(c) conditions for, and limitations in respect of, the dilution of spirits, and the distiller shall immediately comply with any such specification.

Distiller to empty worm tubs, etc., for examination.

182. At any time when distillation is not in process the distiller shall, if so required by the proper officer, draw off the water from the worm tubs or refrigerators and these vessels shall remain empty until the officer completes his examination of the spirits pipes therein.

Removal of spirits to another distillery.

183. Except with the permission of the Commissioner upon his being satisfied as to the necessity, and subject to such conditions as he may impose, a distiller shall not remove spirits from his distiller's warehouse to another distillery.

- Prohibition of return of spirits to distillery. 184. (1) Except with the permission of the Commissioner and in accordance with any conditions which he may impose, no spirits delivered in accordance with regulation 179 shall be returned to the distillery in which they were manufactured or any other distillery.
- (2) Except as provided in subparagraph (1) a distiller shall not have on, bring to or store in his entered distillery premises or distiller's warehouse any spirits which he has not himself distilled or on which any duties of customs have been paid.
- (3) Spirits for home use or rectification or compounded by a rectifier on which excise duty has been paid or secured shall forthwith be removed from the entered distillery premises or distiller's warehouse.
- Application of certain regulations to spirits manufactured other than by distillation of a fermented liquor. 185. Rectifiers

- Restrictions on rectifier. 186. (1) A rectifier shall not rectify or compound any spirits except spirits whose duty has been paid in full.
- (2) A rectifier who is also a distiller shall not rectify or compound any spirits except spirits which he has distilled in his distillery.
- (3) A rectifier shall not receive or have in his rectifying premises any methylated spirits or any materials capable of being distilled into feints or spirits.
- Rectifier ceasing to carry on trade. 187. (1) A rectifier shall not cease to carry on the trade of Rectifier rectifier until he has first notified the Commissioner in writing.
- (2) Where any person notifies the Commissioner of his intention to cease carrying on the trade of rectifier, he shall at his own expense -
- (a) dismantle and dispose of any still or other equipment used for rectification, or any part thereof, in accordance with the directions of the Commissioner; and
- (b) dispose of any spirits on his premises in accordance with the directions of the Commissioner.
- Marking of casks and containers. 188. Every rectifier shall legibly cut, brand or paint with oil colour on both ends of every movable cask or other container used in his premises for keeping or for the delivery of spirits, keep so cut, branded or painted -
- (a) his name;
- (b) the place where the rectified or compounded spirit is kept, or from where it is delivered; and
- (c) the nature and quantity of the contents:

Provided that the Commissioner may permit different markings in the case of rectified or compounded spirits delivered in bottles.

Locking of still or steam pipe.	189. The furnace door of every still, and the cock on every steam pipe, shall be kept locked when the still is not in use.
Unlocking of still.	190. When a rectifier desires to have the furnace door or steam pipe of a still unlocked he shall give the proper officer not less than twelve hours' previous written notice specifying the still and the day and hour when he wishes to have the door or pipe unlocked.
Further notice of readiness for locking of still.	191. If the still is not charged and ready to be locked within one hour of the time stated in the notice the rectifier shall give another notice to the proper officer specifying the time when it will be so charged and ready.
Charging of still.	192. A rectifier shall, before beginning to draw off rectified spirit from a still, charge the still in the proportion of not less than seven parts in ten of the whole quantity which the still, including the head is capable of containing and shall keep the still so charged until he begins to draw off rectified spirits therefrom.
Time within which still to be worked off.	193. Every still shall be worked off within sixteen hours from the time when the officer takes the gauge thereof.
Restrictions on working of still.	194. (1) A rectifier shall not allow his still to be worked until the officer has examined the nature of its contents and has secured the still by locking the still fastenings. (2) A rectifier shall permit the charge and discharge cock of every still used by him to be locked by the officer, and to be kept so locked whilst the still is at work.
Hours when still not to be used.	195. Except with the written permission of the proper officer, a rectifier shall not use a still between twelve noon on a Saturday and eight o'clock in the morning of the following Monday.
Rectifier to permit officer to sample contents of still.	196. A rectifier shall allow a proper officer to take a sample of the contents of any still before it has begun to work, or after it has ceased working, and of the contents of any cask, vessel or utensil.
Conditions governing receipt of spirits.	197. (1) A rectifier shall on receipt of any spirits give notice thereof to the proper officer and deliver to him the permit (when required) received with the spirits. (2) A rectifier shall not, unless the proper officer has taken account of the spirits so received, break bulk or draw off any part of the spirits or add water or anything thereto, or in any respect alter them, or trap, open, alter or change any container containing the spirits.
Notice of intention to deposit spirits in bonded warehouse.	198. A rectifier who intends to deposit in a bonded warehouse any spirits rectified or compounded by him shall give to the proper officer at least twelve hours' written notice in an approved form specifying the time at which and the place from which he intends to remove the spirits to the warehouse and giving such particulars of the spirits as the Commissioner may require, and he shall produce the spirits to the officer for examination at the time and place specified in the notice.
Rectifier to permit officer to take account of spirits in stock; stock book.	199. (1) A rectifier shall at any time permit an officer to take an account of all spirits in his stock. (2) If a still is at work when an account of the stock is taken by an officer all spirits produced from the charge of the still shall be kept apart from the remainder of the stock until the account has been completed. (3) When the strength of any spirits forming part of the stock of a rectifier cannot be ascertained without distillation, the rectifier shall, on request by the officer, cause the true quantity and strength of the spirits to be legibly marked on the outside of the vessel containing them, and to be kept so marked until the spirits are removed therefrom.

(4) A rectifier shall post up and balance his stock account on each occasion when the officer takes stock.

Power of Commissioner to specify vessels, etc., to ensure excise control and records to be kept.

200. The Commissioner may specify -

(a) the type and description of vessels and other containers which may be used by a rectifier;

(b) such containers as he may consider necessary to ensure proper excise control in respect of operations on a rectifier's premises; and

(c) the records to be kept by a rectifier in respect of his operations, and the rectifier shall immediately comply with any such specification.

Denaturers

Restrictions on spirits for denaturing.

201. (1) A distiller who is also a denaturer shall not receive spirits for denaturing except from his own distillery or distiller's warehouse and shall not receive any denatured spirits not denatured at his entered denaturing premises.

(2) A denaturer who is not a distiller shall not denature any spirits except spirits distilled in Kenya.

Denaturer ceasing to carry on trade.

202. (1) A denaturer shall not cease to carry on the trade of denaturer until he has first notified the Commissioner in writing.

(2) Where any person notifies the Commissioner of his intention to cease carrying on the trade of denaturer he shall, at his own expense -

(a) dismantle and dispose of any vats or other appliances used for denaturing, or any part thereof, in accordance with the directions of the Commissioner; and

(b) dispose of any spirits and denatured spirits on his premises in accordance with the directions of the Commissioner.

Substances and formula for denaturing.

203. Spirits shall be denatured only by the mixing therewith of the substances (in these regulations referred to as denaturants) set out in the Third Schedule and in accordance with the appropriate formula therein set out.

Denaturants to conform to conditions.

204. The denaturants used in manufacturing denatured spirits shall, unless the Commissioner otherwise permits, conform to the conditions in the Fourth Schedule.

Mixing rooms.

205. (1) A denaturer shall mix spirits with the prescribed denaturants only in an approved mixing room.

(2) Save as permitted by the Commissioner and subject to such conditions as he sees fit to impose, no person shall take into or keep in any mixing room approved for denaturing any substance other than spirits for denaturing, denatured spirits or denaturants, but water intended for use in reducing denatured spirits may be taken in as and when it is required for that purpose.

(3) A mixing room shall contain one or more fixed mixing vats, each of a capacity not less than two thousand five hundred litres, and shall be ventilated, lighted and equipped with means for taking account of spirits, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner.

- Store rooms. 206. A denaturer shall provide, in convenient proximity to the denaturing plant but separate from the mixing room, an approved store room or compartment to be used solely for the storage of denaturants and marked as being used for that purpose, which he shall not allow to be opened before eight o'clock in the morning nor after five o'clock in the afternoon, and in which he shall provide means to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for taking account of the denaturants.
- Conveying of spirits for denaturing. 207. (1) Spirits for denaturing shall be conveyed to the premises where they are to be denatured under bond in such amount and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, but no bond shall be required where spirits are removed, in the presence of an officer, from a distillery or distiller's warehouse for denaturing on the distillery premises.
- (2) Spirits intended for denaturing may be removed from a distillery or distiller's warehouse to a denaturer's premises by tank waggon or pipe line, approved by the Commissioner, and means shall in every case be provided to the Commissioner's satisfaction for taking an account of spirits conveyed in the tank waggon or pipe line.
- Interference with spirits conveyed for denaturing. 208. No person shall in any way interfere with or alter any spirits in the casks or drums or other receptacles in which they have been conveyed to the premises where they are to be denatured until the proper officer has taken account of them.
- Placing of spirits in vat or tank. 209. A denaturer shall not place any spirits in a vat or tank which already contains any liquid or matter other than a prescribed denaturant.
- Approval of proper officer to denaturing operation. 210. (1) A denaturer shall, before giving to the proper officer notice to attend to take an account of spirits, obtain the approval of the officer of the denaturants which are to be used in the denaturing of the spirits.
- (2) A denaturer shall allow the proper officer to take samples of the denaturants.
- (3) Before a denaturer denatures any spirits he shall give to the proper officer notice to attend for the purpose of taking an account of the spirits and deliver to him the permit (when required) which accompanied the spirits.
- (4) A denaturer shall not begin to denature the spirits until the officer has taken the account, shall begin to denature immediately thereafter, and shall complete the denaturing with all reasonable speed.
- Placing of denaturants in mixing vat. 211. Before any spirits are placed in the mixing vat a denaturer shall place therein such part of the prescribed quantities of denaturants as the proper officer may require, and shall subsequently add the remainder of the prescribed denaturants and mix them with the spirits in the presence of, and to the satisfaction of, the officer.
- Prohibition on adding substances other than denaturants. 212. A denaturer shall not add to or mix with any spirits or denatured spirits any substance except denaturants in accordance with these Regulations, but water may be added to denatured spirits so long as it does not reduce the strength thereof below sixty degrees over proof.
- Storage of denaturants. 213. Denaturants received into the approved store room or compartment for denaturants shall be placed immediately in the proper vats or other receptacles and the denaturants shall be dealt with and the vats and receptacles shall be secured in such manner as the proper officer may direct.

214. (1) A denaturer shall keep daily accounts in an approved form of all spirits and denatured spirits received or manufactured by him and of the disposal thereof.

(2) A denaturer shall keep the accounts at his premises and keep them open for inspection by the proper officer at all reasonable times, shall allow the officer to make copies thereof and take extracts therefrom, and shall post up and balance the accounts on each occasion when the officer takes stock and at any other time if the officer so requires.

Stills

Permission to keep or use stills. E. 11.

215. (1) Application for permission under section 103 of the Act to keep or use a still shall be made to the Commissioner in Form E.10, and the Commissioner may grant the application subject to such conditions as he sees fit.

(2) Every person (other than a person who wishes to make or keep stills solely for the purpose of sale) who makes application for permission to keep or use a still, shall furnish to the Commissioner with his application such particulars as the Commissioner may require of -

(a) the still, including drawings thereof;

(b) the premises on which it is to be kept; and

(c) the purpose for which it is to be kept or used.

Disposal of stills.

216. A person permitted to keep or use a still without licence shall not dispose of the still except with the permission and in accordance with the directions of the Commissioner.

Glass flasks and containers.

217. Nothing in regulations 215 and 216 shall apply to glass and containers, flasks and glass condensers which in the opinion of the Commissioner are of a kind intended to be used solely for ordinary laboratory processes.

Ascertainment of the Strength of Spirits

Strength of spirits.

218. (1) The strength of spirits may be ascertained -

(a) by means of Sykes hydrometer and its associated table marked Table 1 (Spirits of the deposited Tables (Series One)); or

(b) by means of Syke's "A" hydrometer or Syke's "B" hydrometer, where the latter is used with its poise attached, and the associated table marked Table 11 (Spirits) of the deposited Tables (Series One); or

(c) by means of Syke's "B" hydrometer, where used without its poise, and by means of the associated table marked Table V (Spirits) of the deposited Tables (Series One); or

(d) by the following means -

(i) the gravity shall be determined, and the strength of the spirits shall be taken to be the percentage of proof spirit corresponding in Table 1 of the deposited Tables (Series Two);

(ii) if for the purpose of determining the gravity of any spirits the spirits are subjected to dilution with distilled water, Table II, Table III or Table IV of the deposited Tables (Series Two) shall be substituted for Table 1 according as the dilution is to two, three or four times the original volume of the spirits;

(iii) where the gravity of any spirits determined under subparagraph (i) or (ii) falls between any two consecutive numbers appearing in column 1 of any of the Tables, an amount bearing the same proportion to the difference between the two numbers in column II corresponding to the two numbers in column I, as the difference between the gravity so determined and the lesser of the two numbers in column I bears to the difference between the two numbers in column I, shall be deducted from the greater of the two numbers in column II, and the amount so determined shall be deemed to be the strength of the spirits; or

(e) by the following means -

(i) the specific gravity at 80° / 80° Fahrenheit shall be determined, and the strength, of the spirits shall be taken to be the corresponding percentage of proof spirits in the deposited Tables (Series Three);

(ii) where the specific gravity of 80°/80° Fahrenheit of any spirits determined under subparagraph (i) falls between any two consecutive numbers appearing in column I of the last-mentioned tables, the procedure described in subparagraph (d) (iii) shall be followed, except that where in that subparagraph "gravity" is mentioned "specific gravity at 80°/80° Fahrenheit" shall be substituted.

(2) Where the spirits contain any substance other than ethyl alcohol and water the Commissioner may, if he sees fit, either -

(a) remove from the spirits any such substances to the extent which he considers necessary by distillation or such other process as he may direct and may, after the addition of water to replace the quantity so removed, ascertain the strength of the spirits by any means authorized under this head; or

(b) treat the spirits as though they contained ethyl alcohol and water only.

Ascertainment by weight, measure or gauge.

219. (1) The volume of spirits contained in any container may be ascertained for any purpose by weight, measure or gauge as the Commissioner may direct.

(2) Where the Commissioner under paragraph (1) directs ascertainment by weighing, the volume shall be calculated -

(a) by means of Syke's hydrometer and the associated table, marked Table III of the deposited Tables (Series One); or

(b) by means of Syke's "A" hydrometer, or Syke's "B" hydrometer where the latter is used with its poise attached, and the associated table marked Table IV of the deposited Tables (Series One); or

(c) by means of Syke's "B" hydrometer, where used without its poise, and by means of the associated table marked Table VI of the deposited Tables (Series One).

Interpretation and application to denatured spirits and fermented liquor.

220. (1) In regulations 218 and 219 -

"deposited Tables (Series One)" means certain tables signed by the Commissioner and deposited in his office;

"deposited Tables (Series Two)" means certain tables signed and deposited as aforesaid entitled "Tables showing the relation between the specific gravity of spirits at 60°/60° Fahrenheit and the percentage of alcohol by weight and by volume with the corresponding percentage of proof spirits";

"deposited Tables (Series Three)" means certain tables signed and deposited as aforesaid entitled "Tables showing the relation between the specific gravity of spirits at 80°/80° Fahrenheit, the corresponding percentage of alcohol by weight".

(2) Regulations 218 and 219 shall apply to denatured spirits and to any fermented liquor as they apply to spirits.

PART XII - DUTIES

Payment

Payment of duties.

221. (1) Duties shall be paid at the custom house or at such other place as the Commissioner may direct.

(2) Credit notes showing that the amount of duty has been paid into a bank to the credit of the customs and cheques which have been certified by a bank or in respect of which a standing bank guarantee has been lodged with the customs may be accepted in payment of duty.

(3) The Commissioner may authorize payment of duty through electronic transfer of funds in such manner as he may prescribe.

Goods Imported for a Temporary Use or Purpose

222. (1) The provisions of section 143 of the Act shall apply to the following -

- (a) commercial travellers' samples;
- (b) goods, including stage properties, imported for local exhibition or entertainment;
- (c) goods imported solely for renovation or repair;
- (d) touring propaganda material not otherwise prohibited;
- (e) any vehicles and goods of a kind described in regulation 224;:
- (f) any vehicles and goods of a kind described in regulation 225;
- (g) such other goods, and subject to such conditions, as the Commissioner may allow:

Provided that the goods covered under this regulation shall not include cinematograph films, other than films of a maximum width of 16 millimetres and a maximum length of 500 metres imported for free exhibition for the sole purpose of promoting travel in the country therein depicted.

(2) Where any road vehicle or goods are not re-exported within the period of one year, the vehicle or goods shall be liable to duty as from the date of first importation and no reduction in value shall be allowed in respect of depreciation due to any post-importation wear and tear or damage.

(3) For the purpose of this regulation "commercial traveller" means a person who satisfies the proper officer that he is soliciting orders for merchandise on behalf of a business house established outside Kenya.

Commercial travellers' samples and goods imported for temporary use. C. 43. CB. 10. L.N.6/1999

223. (1) Any person who desires to import any goods of a kind described in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (g) of regulation 222 (1) shall make application to the proper officer in Form C.43 and Form C 63 in duplicate and shall state therein -

(a) the full particulars of the goods imported, specifying the nature thereof and any further particulars necessary for the purpose of identification;

(b) the approximate date on which, and the port at which, the goods will be re-exported.

(2) If the goods are to be re-exported at a port other than the port of importation the application shall be made in triplicate.

(3) If the proper officer so requires, invoices or other documentary evidence of value shall be produced and attached to the application and retained by the officer.

(4) The importer shall deposit a sufficient amount to cover the duty on the goods, or shall furnish security thereof in Form CB. 10, at the election of the proper officer.

(5) Before the deposit is refunded or the security cancelled the following conditions shall be observed -

(a) the goods shall be re-exported within a period of twelve months from the date of importation;

(b) the owner shall give due notice to the proper officer at the port of re-exportation of his intention to re-export the goods and shall deliver to the proper officer the duplicate copy of the application issued to him at the port of importation.

Temporary importation of vehicles, etc.

224. (1) If any person who is usually resident outside Kenya and who intends to make only a temporary stay therein imports -

(a) any road vehicle, including trailers, or cycles with or without engines, and their accessories, for his use during the visit; or

(b) any goods intended for his use, convenience or comfort while in Kenya but not intended to go into home use in Kenya; or

(c) any road vehicle, including trailers, designed for the transport of persons for remuneration or for the industrial or commercial transport of goods;

and complies with the conditions contained in paragraph (6), those vehicles and goods shall be granted temporary free admission subject to re-exportation.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), the vehicle and goods shall be re-exported within a period of twelve months from the date of importation unless the person can establish to the satisfaction of the proper officer that he is prevented from doing so by force majeure.

(3) Where a vehicle which has been temporarily admitted cannot be re-exported as the result of a seizure, other than an attachment made at the suit of a private person, the period specified in paragraph (2) shall be suspended for the duration of the seizure.

(4) The re-exportation of a badly damaged vehicle shall not be required in the case of a duly authenticated accident if the vehicle is either subjected to the duty to which it is liable or is abandoned free of all expenses to the customs or destroyed at the expense of the parties concerned, as the proper officer may require.

(5) No reduction in value shall be allowed in respect of any depreciation due to any post importation wear and tear or damage.

(6) Any person importing a vehicle or goods under the provisions of this regulation shall -

(a) at the time and place of importation produce to the proper officer the temporary importation papers (Carnet de Passage en Douane, Pass Sheet or other similar importation documents) issued under the guarantee of an authorized association in respect of the vehicle or goods; and

(b) satisfy the proper officer that the vehicle and goods correspond in all respects with the description in the temporary importation papers;

(c) before re-exportation produce the papers and satisfy the proper officer that the vehicle and goods correspond with the description therein;

(d) re-export the vehicle and goods during the validity of the papers; and

(e) in the case of vehicles specified in subparagraph (c) of paragraph (1) the person shall satisfy the Commissioner that -

(i) his principal place of business is outside Kenya;

(ii) the vehicle is registered outside Kenya;

(iii) the vehicle is owned and operated by a person whose principal place of business is outside Kenya;

(iv) the importation is taking place in the course of a journey which has begun and will end outside Kenya; and

(v) the purpose of the journey is to use the vehicle for the transport of persons for remuneration or for the industrial or commercial transport of goods from or to a place outside Kenya.

(7) A guaranteeing association shall be allowed a period of one year as from the notification of the non-discharge of the temporary importation papers, which notification shall be made within five years of the expiry of the validity of the papers, in which to furnish proof of the re-exportation of the vehicle or goods; and if proof is not furnished within the time allowed the guaranteeing association shall forthwith pay the duty payable; and that payment shall not be refundable after a period of one year from the date of the payment.

Procedure when temporary importation papers are not produced. C. 44.

225. (1) If any person who is usually resident outside Kenya and who intends to make only a temporary stay therein imports -

(a) any road vehicle, including trailers, or cycles with or without engines, and their accessories, for use during his visit; or

(b) any goods intended for his use, convenience or comfort while in Kenya but not intended to go into home use in Kenya; or

and does not produce temporary importation papers (Cornet de Passage en Douane, Pass Sheet or other similar importation documents), the vehicle and goods shall be granted temporary free admission subject to compliance with the condition contained in paragraph (2).

(2) Any person importing a vehicle or goods under the provisions of this regulation shall -

(a) at the time and place of importation deposit with the proper officer, or furnish security for the payment of, a sum equal to the duty chargeable on the vehicle and goods;

(b) deliver to the proper officer a claim in Form C.44 in duplicate for temporary exemption;

(c) re-export the vehicle and goods within a period of twelve months from the date of importation; and

(d) in the case of vehicles specified in subparagraph (c) of paragraph

(1) the person shall satisfy the Commissioner that -

(i) his principal place of business is outside Kenya;

(ii) the vehicle is registered outside Kenya;

(iii) the vehicle is owned and operated by a person whose principal place of business is outside Kenya;

(iv) the importation is taking place in the course of a journey which has begun and will end outside Kenya; and

(v) the purpose of the journey is to use the vehicle for the transport of persons for remuneration or for the industrial or commercial transport of goods from or to a place outside Kenya.

(3) One copy of the form signed and stamped by the proper officer shall be returned to the importer who shall, on re-exportation of the vehicle and goods, declare them on Part II of the form and deliver it to the proper officer at the place of re-exportation.

(4) If the officer is satisfied that the vehicle and goods declared for re-exportation correspond in all particulars with the description in the form, and that they will be re-exported forthwith, the amount deposited shall be repaid to the importer who shall give a receipt to the proper officer.

Vehicles from Uganda, Tanzania, Sudan, Somalia, Ethiopia or any other country with which Kenya has bilateral agreement.

225A. Notwithstanding the provisions of regulations 224 and 225, where -

(a) a person who is resident in Uganda, Tanzania, Sudan, Somalia or Ethiopia and intends to make a temporary stay in Kenya not exceeding three months and wishes to import a road vehicle; or

(b) an owner of a passenger or goods carrying vehicle which is registered outside Kenya, satisfies the proper officer that -

(i) his principal place of business is outside Kenya in a country (herein after called "that country") with which Kenya has a reciprocal bilateral agreement on road transportation;

(ii) the vehicle is registered in that country;

(iii) the vehicle is owned and operated by the person whose principal place of business is in that country; and

(iv) the purpose of the journey is to use the vehicle for the transport of persons or goods for remuneration or otherwise from or to a place in that country to or from Kenya; or

(c) an owner of a vehicle carrying relief personnel, medical equipment or relief supplies wishes to bring in his vehicle, the proper officer may allow importation of such vehicle, without the production of temporary importation papers (Carnet de Passage en Doune, Pass Sheet or other similar importation documents) and without making a deposit as required by regulation 225 if that person -

(i) at the time and port or place of importation makes and delivers to the proper officer two copies of a declaration in the Form No. C.44A one of which shall be duly signed and stamped and returned to the importer;

(ii) at the time and port or place of exportation produces the vehicle to the proper officer and delivers to the officer the importer's copy of the declaration in the Form No. C.44A;

(iii) exports the vehicle within fourteen days or such further period not exceeding three months as the proper officer may allow, from the date of importation;

(iv) and in respect of goods, complies with conditions relating to importation by overland routes including provisions contained in regulation 27.

- Restrictions on user of vehicles temporarily imported.
226. No road vehicle imported into Kenya under regulation 224, 225 or 225A shall be -
- (a) lent, sold, pledged, hired, given away, exchanged or, otherwise disposed of without the prior permission of the proper officer; or
- (b) except in the case of importation under regulation 224 (1)
- (c) or 225 (1) (c), 225A (b) used within Kenya for the transport of persons or goods for remuneration.

Payments of, and Security for, Excise Duty on Spirits

- Remittance of excise duty on spirits and declaration. E. 12. E B. 4. E. 13.
- 227 (1) In respect of spirits delivered for home use or rectifying or compounding by a rectifier on payment of duty, the distiller or rectifier shall, together with a remittance for the amount of duty, deliver to the proper officer a declaration in Form E.8 in duplicate.
- (2) In respect of spirits delivered for removal without payment of duty to a rectifier's warehouse, the distiller shall deliver in duplicate to the proper officer, together with such security in Form EBS as the Commissioner may require, a declaration in Form E.8.
- Secured gross accounts.
228. A distiller or rectifier may, if he so desires, pay duty by means of a secured gross payment account.
- Delivery of spirits without payment of duty. EB. 5.E. 14.
229. In respect of spirits delivered without payment of duty in accordance with any written law the distiller shall deliver in duplicate to the proper officer together with such security in Form EBS as the Commissioner may require for the proper delivery of the spirits, a declaration in Form E.8.
- Delivery of spirits for denaturing. EB. 5. E. 15.
230. In respect of spirits delivered for denaturing, the distiller shall deliver in duplicate to the proper officer together with such security in Form EBS as the Commissioner may require, a declaration in Form E.8.

Drawback, Remission, Rebate and Refund of Import Duty, Suspended Duty and Dumping Duty

- Basis of drawback.
- 231 Drawback shall be payable according to the actual quantity of goods re-exported, or shipped for use as stores, or used as prescribed, as the case may be.
- Conditions granting drawback.
232. It shall be a condition for the granting of any drawback that-
- (a) the goods are not prohibited by any law from being re- exported or put on board any aircraft or vessel for use as stores;
- (b) perfect entry of the goods has been made and the relative invoice deposited with the proper officer.
- When drawback is not payable. C. 45. C. 46. CB. 4. CB. 5. L.N.6/1999
233. Drawback shall not be allowed on any goods -
- (a) unless the person claiming drawback enters the goods for re-exportation, or shipment for use as stores, in Form C. 45 and Form C 63 in quadruplicate at the port of re-exportation and submits within twelve months of the date of re-exportation a draw back debenture in Form C. 46 in duplicate;

(b) unless a bond in Form CB. 4 or CB. 5, as the case may be, for the due re-exportation, or shipment for use as stores, is given, if the proper officer so requires, by the person claiming drawback;

(c) Unless -

(i) the goods are re-exported in their original packages in which they were imported;
or

(ii) the contents were unpacked and repacked in other packages by authority and under supervision of an officer; or

(iii) in the case of machines and machinery, they were found defective before or after installation and upon testing or use for a period not exceeding three months from the date of payment of duty, or such further period as the Commissioner may allow and have subsequently been re-exported or destroyed under supervision of an officer:

Provided that in the case of unexposed cinematograph film, petroleum imported in bulk and leaf tobacco imported and used in the manufacture locally of tobacco, cigars or cigarettes the repacking and payment of drawback may be allowed under such conditions as the Commissioner may impose;

(d) unless the proper officer is satisfied that the goods are identical with the particulars thereof contained in the entries, invoices and other documents relating thereto;

(e) which are damaged or spoilt;

(f) which after importation were used, save as provided for in subparagraph (c), within Kenya;

(g) unless the goods are produced to the proper officer for examination at the approved place of examination prior to re-exportation and also, if required, on board the aircraft or vessel on which they are to be re-exported or used as stores;

(h) unless the goods are conveyed direct and without delay from the place of examination to the aircraft or vessel in which they are to be re-exported or shipped for use as stores, or in case of goods re-exported overland, to the port or re-exportation nearest to the frontier:

Provided that the proper officer may allow any goods to remain in official custody for a reasonable time at the risk and expense of the exporter, in which case drawback shall not be allowed unless the goods are thereafter conveyed direct and without delay to the aircraft or vessel or port or place;

(i) unless the goods are re-exported or shipped for use as stores within twelve months from the date of the payment of duty and the proper officer has certified on the re-export entry that the goods have been re-exported or shipped for use as stores;

(ii) unless the person claiming drawback on the goods entered for re-exportation produces, if required, within the time allowed by the proper officer a certificate in respect of the landing of the goods from the competent authority at the port or place of discharge.

Remission or refund of duty on abandoned goods. C. 47.

234. Where, in accordance with section 12 of the Act, the owner of goods subject to customs control wishes to abandon them to the customs, he shall apply to the Commissioner in writing, and if the Commissioner allows the abandonment, the owner may apply to the proper officer for remission or refund of duty in Form C.47 in duplicate.

Remission on official aid funded projects. L.N.120/1996. L.N.67/2000

234A. Where under section 138 (2) (g) of the Act, remission is sought in respect of an official aid funded project executed by a contractor other than official aid funding agency, such contractor shall furnish to the Commissioner, a security bond in Form CB 16.

Maintenance, inspection, etc. of remission records

234B. (1) Where remission has been granted in accordance with section 138 (1) of the Act to the persons specified in the Seventh Schedule, the Commissioner shall maintain a record of such remission and shall make inspections from time to time to verify that the goods are used by the person to whom remission has been granted.

(2) Where it is found that the goods are used in a manner inconsistent with the purpose for which the remission was granted, the duty so remitted shall become payable in accordance with the provisions of section 155(1) of the Act.

Remission of duty on goods lost or destroyed by accident.

235. Where, in accordance with section 144 of the Act, any person claims a remission of duty on any goods lost or destroyed by accident, he shall apply therefor in writing to the proper officer and submit proof of the loss or destruction in such form and manner as the proper officer may require.

Rebate of duty on damaged goods. C. 48.

236. Where, in accordance with section 148 of the Act, any person claims a rebate of the duty payable on any imported goods damaged before the goods are delivered out of customs control, he shall submit to the proper officer an application for rebate in Form C. 48 in duplicate, together with such evidence as the proper officer may require that the carrier or insurer of the goods has made an allowance to him in respect of the damage and of the amount of that allowance.

Refund where goods returned to seller. C. 45. C. 46. CB. 4. L.N.66/1999

237. (1) Where, in accordance with section 147 of the Act, the owner of any goods wishes to return them to the seller, he shall notify the proper officer accordingly and submit such evidence as the proper officer may require that the goods are not in accordance with the contract of sale or that the goods were damaged before they were delivered out of customs control.

(2) A refund shall not be allowed on any goods -

(a) unless the person claiming refund enters the goods for re-exportation in Form C. 45 and Form C 63 in quadruplicate at the port of re-exportation and submits within twelve months' of the date of the payment of duty a drawback debenture in Form C. 46 in duplicate;

(b) unless a bond in Form CB. 4 for the due re-exportation is given, if the proper officer so requires, by the person claiming refund;

(c) unless the goods are repacked for re-exportation by authority and under supervision of an officer;

(d) unless the proper officer is satisfied that the goods were imported in pursuance of a contract of sale and that the description, quality, state or condition of the goods was not in accordance with the contract;

(e) which have been damaged after having been delivered out of customs control;

(f) which after importation were used, save as provided for in subparagraph (c), or exposed for sale, within Kenya;

(g) unless the goods are produced to the proper officer for examination and also, if required, at the approved place of examination prior to re-exportation and on board the aircraft or vessel on which they are to be re-exported;

(h) unless the goods are conveyed direct and without delay from the place of examination to the aircraft or vessel in which they are to be re-exported or, in the case of goods re-exported overland, to the port of re-exportation nearest to the frontier:

Provided that the proper officer may allow any goods to remain in official custody for a reasonable time at the risk and expense of the exporter, in which case refund shall not be allowed unless the goods are thereafter conveyed direct and without delay to the aircraft or vessel or port;

(i) unless the goods are re-exported within twelve months from the date of payment of duty;

(j) unless the proper officer certifies on the re-export entry that that the goods have been re-exported;

(k) unless the person claiming refund on the goods entered for re-exportation produces, if required, within the time allowed by the proper officer, a certificate in respect of the landing of the goods from the competent authority at the port or place of discharge.

Refund of duty on damaged, pillage, or destroyed goods. C. 48.

238. Where, in accordance with section 146 of the Act, any person claims a refund of duty which has been paid on any goods which have been damaged or pillage during the voyage, or damaged or destroyed while subject to customs control, he shall submit to the proper officer an application for refund in Form C. 48 in duplicate, and submit such proof of the damage, pillage or destruction as the proper officer may require.

Refund of duty paid in error or overpaid and of deposit or cancellation of bond given as security. C. 49.

239. (1) Any person claiming a refund of any duties which have been paid in error or shall submit to the proper officer at the place where the duty was paid an application therefor in Form C. 49 in duplicate, together with such evidence of overpayment as the officer shall require.

(2) Save as may be otherwise provided elsewhere in these Regulations, any person claiming a refund of any deposit or requesting cancellation of any bond given by way of security under the provisions of Part XII of the Act, shall submit to the proper officer at the place where the deposit was made or the security given, an application therefor in Form C.36 in duplicate, together with such evidence of compliance with those provisions of the Act that necessitated payment of a deposit or the giving of security as the proper officer may require:

Provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Regulations, where the Commissioner is satisfied that the non-production of satisfactory proof of compliance in respect of any part of an undertaking given is due to circumstances beyond the control of the person entering into the undertaking, he may refund to that person so much of any deposit made as he thinks appropriate to that part of the undertaking in respect of which proof has been produced or release that person from the obligations of any bond in so far as it concerns that part.

Refund of duty to registered user. C. 49.

240. (1) An application for refund of duty by a registered user shall be made in duplicate in Form C.49.

(2) No application for a refund of duty shall be accepted by the Commissioner from or on behalf of any person unless-

(a) that person has been registered as a registered user;

(b) the application is presented with all the relevant documents relating to the importation of the goods within twelve months from the date of payment of duty, or within such further period not exceeding three years from the date of that payment as the Commissioner may authorize:

Provided that the Commissioner shall only authorize an extended period during which refund may be claimed before the expiry of the current relative order;

(c) at the time of importation or clearance through customs of goods which he intends to claim a refund of duty he declares on the appropriate customs prescribed entry that—

(i) the goods have either been imported or purchased prior to clearance through the customs by him;

(ii) the goods will be used solely by him for the purpose specified in the relative order; and

(iii) it is his intention to claim a refund of duty in respect of the goods in accordance with the provisions of the Act;

(d) the clearance or entry of the goods on importation or from a bonded warehouse has not been done prior to the effective date of the order.

(3) Any order subsequently made relative to the applicant shall specify a specific rate of refund of duty and the Commissioner shall make the refund on being satisfied that the goods have been dealt with in accordance with the terms of the order and the provisions of these Regulations.

Provided that the value of imported goods for which remission is being requested under this paragraph exceeds two hundred thousand shillings.

(8) Applications under paragraph (6) (b) or (7) (b) can only be made once every six months except where evidence can be provided that exports or sales have or will reasonably be expected to exceed the average export or sale value for a six month period.

(9) The Export Promotion Programmes Office shall maintain a register of applicants for duty remission under this regulation which shall include the name, postal address and location of business premises, and any other information that the Export Promotion Programmes Office may require.

(10) Remission of duty on goods under this regulation is conditional on the applicant undertaking in Form C.56 -

(a) to pay the duty on any imported goods -

(i) that have not been used in the production of approved exports or indirect exports where remission is granted under paragraph (2); or

(ii) that have not been used in the production of approved goods where remission is granted under paragraph (3); or

(iii) that have not been re-exported; or

(iv) that have not been transferred to an approved bonded factory as provided for under paragraph (24); or

(v) that have not been transferred to the next production period as provided for in paragraph (25);

(b) to complete and submit to the Export Promotion Programmes Office a reconciliation declaration as required under paragraph (22);

(c) to keep and maintain books and records in accordance with paragraph (18); and

(d) to provide security in the form and manner referred to in paragraph (14).

(11) Goods manufactured from goods imported under this regulation shall not be eligible for export compensation under the Local Manufactures (Export Compensation) Act or duty remission under any other written law.

(12) Where a by-product results from a process of manufacture or production utilizing goods subject to duty remission under this regulation, duty shall be payable on such imported goods in the same proportion that the value of the by-product bears to the total value of all goods manufactured or produced from such imported goods unless the by-products are exported.

(13) Where any scrap or waste of commercial value results from a process of manufacture or production utilizing goods subject to duty remission under this regulation, duty shall be payable on the prevailing value of the scrap or waste in accordance with section 127 or 127B, as the case may be, and the First Schedule, unless the scrap or waste is exported, or destroyed under supervision of the proper officer.

(14) Goods imported under this regulation -

(a) shall be entered on Form C.15 and Form C 63 or Form C.20 and Form C 63 with a declaration of "REMISSION UNDER APPROVED MANUFACTURE, Legal Notice Number of" endorsed on each copy in block letters; and

(b) shall have a security bond posted in an amount determined by the Commissioner, but not exceeding the duty that would otherwise be payable, and executed on the Form CB.13.

(15) Goods purchased from an indirect exporter under this regulation -

(a) shall be transferred from the indirect exporter to the approved manufacturer or producer for use in the production of exports using Form C.58; and

(b) shall have a security bond posted by the recipient of the transferred goods in an amount determined by the Commissioner, but not exceeding the duty that would otherwise, be payable on the indirect imports, and executed on the Form CB.13.

(16) The security bond shall be cancelled only -

(a) after the reconciliation declaration has been verified and approved by the Export

Promotion Programmes Office; and

(b) any unused imported goods have been re-exported or transferred to an approved bonded factory; or

(c) the duty has been paid:

Provided that for application of remission approved on or after the 1st of July, 1992, the security bond shall be cancelled within ninety days of receipt by the Export Promotion Programmes Office of a properly completed Form C.57 as required under paragraphs (21) and (22), subject to the payment of all duties declared on the Form C.57, if the Export Promotion Programmes Office has failed to respond in writing to approve or reject such a reconciliation within such a period.

(17) The Export Promotion Programmes Office shall within seven days of the receipt of a satisfactorily completed and supported application as required under paragraph (6) or (7) give approval or advise the applicant of a rejection stating the reasons for rejection.

(18) Every person who has been granted a remission from duty shall keep and maintain at his place of business detailed books and records relating to the purchase, importation, stocks of goods production, packing, sales, shipping and exportation of all goods.

(19) The books and records referred to in paragraph (18) shall be kept for five years from the time of application for remission and shall be made available, upon request, to the proper officer, including an officer of the Export Promotion Programmes Office, for examination and verification at reasonable times.

(20) Separate books and records shall be maintained for stocks of imported goods, indirect imports and indirect exports from those maintained for domestic goods.

(21) A proper officer, including an officer of the Export Promotion Programmes Office or an officer appointed by the Export Promotion Programmes Office, is authorized to examine and verify books and records, inspect the production facilities of any remission applicant and examine any goods or materials within the production facility or any storage place related thereto.

(22) A reconciliation declaration in Form C. 57 in respect of the duty remission granted shall be submitted to the Export Promotion Programmes Office in three copies within a nine month period from the time of approval of the remission application or, for applications approved under paragraph (6) (a) or (7) (a), on completion of the order or contract, whichever is the earlier.

(23) The declaration referred to in paragraph (22) shall be supported by -

(a) certified copies of all import entries and indirect export transfers to which the reconciliation declaration relates;

(b) a document showing -

(i) in the case of exporters approved under paragraph (2), the linkage between the imported goods and indirect exports and the exported goods produced or manufactured from these imported goods or any waste or scrap of commercial value, any waste or scrap destroyed, or any by-products either exported or sold domestically resulting from the manufacturing or production of the exported goods;

(ii) in the case of indirect exporters approved under paragraph (2), the linkage between the indirect imports and the indirect exports produced or manufactured from the imported goods or a waste or scrap of commercial value, or any waste or scrap destroyed or any by-products either exported or sold domestically resulting from the manufacturing or production of the indirect exports.

(iii) in the case of manufacturers or producers approved under paragraph (3), the linkage between the imported goods and the sales of approved goods produced or manufactured from the imported goods, or any waste or scrap of commercial value, or any waste or scrap destroyed or any by-products either exported or sold domestically resulting from the manufacturing or production of the approved goods; and

(iv) the disposal of any remaining unused imported goods or indirect exports by re-export, transfer to an approved bonded factory, retention for future use in production as provided for under, paragraph (23), or domestic sale subject to duty;

(c) certified copies of all export entry documents or a list of the export entry numbers to which the declaration relates and certified copies of all indirect export transfer documents; and

(d) the invoices for the exported goods, indirect exports and domestically sold goods, as the case may be.

(24) Subject to section 58A of the Act, imported goods for which a remission has been authorized may be sold or transferred to an approved bonded factory.

(25) The remission from duty granted under this regulation may be renewed on the basis of the conditions of the initial authorization after the nine month period referred to in paragraph (22), by submission of a new application under paragraph (6) or (7) where -

(a) fulfilment of an export or domestic sales contract has been delayed, or only partially achieved; or

(b) where production and delivery for export or domestic sale, as the case may be, can be established to be regular and ongoing.

(26) Any person who fails to comply with or contravenes any provision of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to a fine not exceeding the higher of one million five hundred thousand shillings or three times the value of the goods involved, or be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both.

(27) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (26), where any person -

(a) fraudulently contravenes the provisions of this regulation; or

(b) is grossly negligent in complying with the provisions of this regulation; or

(c) repeatedly acts in a manner inconsistent with the intent of this regulation, the Export Promotion Programmes Office may reject or revoke approval of an application under this regulation.

“appellant” means a person entering an appeal and includes the advocate or duly authorized agent of such person;

“Chairman” means the chairman of the Tribunal appointed under Section 127E(2);

“memorandum” means a memorandum of appeal presented under rule 4;

Appointment of Secretary

3. (1) The Commissioner shall appoint a person who may be an officer of the Customs and Excise Department, to be the secretary to the Tribunal.

(2) The secretary shall, in matters relating to appeals to the tribunal and the procedure therefore, comply with any general or special directions lawfully given by the chairman.

(3) The Secretary shall, by notice in the Gazette, notify the address for the presentation or service of documents for the purposes of these Rules and shall, in the same manner, notify any change in that address

Form and time for lodging an appeal

4. an appeal shall be entered by presentation of a memorandum of appeal, together with seven copies thereof, to the secretary within fourteen days after the date on which the appellant gives notice of appeal in writing to the Commissioner pursuant to section 127B; but where the Tribunal is satisfied that, owing to absence from his normal place of residence, sickness or other reasonable cause, the appellant was prevented from presenting a memorandum within that period, and that there has been no unreasonable delay on his part, the Tribunal may extend that period notwithstanding that the period has already expired.

Memorandum of appeal.

5. A memorandum shall be signed by the appellant and shall set out concisely under distinct heads, numbered consecutively, the grounds of appeal without argument or narrative.

Statement of facts by appellant

6. A memorandum shall be accompanied by-

(a) a copy of the decision of the Commissioner disputed by the appellant;

(b) a copy of the notice of appeal; and

(c) a statement, signed by the appellant, setting out precisely all the facts on which the appeal is based and referring specifically to documentary or other evidence which it is proposed to adduce at the hearing of the appeal, to which shall be annexed a copy of each document or extract from a document upon which the appellant proposes to rely as evidence at the hearing of the appeal.

Service of memorandum

7. Within forty-eight hours after the presentation of a memorandum to the secretary, a copy of the statement of facts of the appellant and the documents annexed thereto shall be served by the appellant upon the Commissioner.

Statement of facts by the Commissioner

8. (1) The Commissioner shall, if he does not accept any of the facts of the appellant, within twenty-one days after service thereof upon him under rule 7, file with the secretary a statement of facts together with seven copies thereof, and the provisions of rule 6 shall mutatis mutandis apply to the statement of facts.

(2) At the time of filing a statement of facts pursuant to paragraph (1), the Commissioner shall serve a copy thereof, together with copies of any documents annexed thereto, upon the appellant.

(3) If the Commissioner does not desire to file a statement of facts under this rule, he shall forthwith give written notice to the effect to the Secretary and to the appellant and in that case the Commissioner shall be deemed at the hearing of the appeal to have accepted the facts set out in the statement of facts of the appellant.

Notice of place of hearing.

9. (1) As soon as may be reasonably practicable after receipt by him of the memorandum, the secretary shall notify the chairman thereof

(2) The chairman shall, after the Commissioner has filed a statement of facts or has notified the secretary that he does not intend to do so, fix a time, date and place for a meeting of the Tribunal for the purpose of hearing the appeal and the secretary shall cause notice thereof to be served on the appellant and the Commissioner.

(3) The secretary shall cause to be supplied to each member of the Tribunal a copy of the notice of hearing and all document received by him from the parties to the appeal.

(4) Unless the parties to the appeal otherwise agree, each party shall be entitled to not less than seven days notice of the time, date and place fixed for the hearing of the appeal.

10. at the hearing of an appeal, the following procedure shall be observed-

(a) the Commissioner shall be entitled to be present or be represented;

(b) the appellant shall state the grounds of his appeal, and may support it by any relevant evidence, but save with the consent of the Tribunal and upon such term as it may be determined, the appellant may not at the hearing rely on a ground of appeal other than a ground stated in the memorandum and may not adduce evidence of facts or documents unless those facts have been referred to in, and copies thereof have been annexed to the statement of facts of the appellant;

(c) at the conclusion of the statement and evidence on behalf of the appellant, the Commissioner may make submissions, supported by relevant evidence and paragraph (b) shall mutatis mutandis apply to evidence of facts and documents to be adduced by the Commissioner;

(d) the appellant shall be entitled to reply but may not raise a new issue or argument;

(e) the chairman or a member of the Tribunal may at any stage of the hearing ask any question of the appellant or the Commissioner or a witness examined at the hearing, which he considers necessary to the determination of the appeal;

(f) a witness called and examined by either party may be cross examined by the other party to the appeal;

(g) the tribunal may adjourn the hearing of the appeal for the production of further evidence or for other good cause, as it considers necessary, on such terms as it may determine;

(h) before the Tribunal considers its decision, the parties to the appeal shall withdraw from the meeting and the Tribunal shall deliberate on the issue according to law and reach its decision thereon;

(i) the decision of the tribunal shall be determined by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote;

(j) minutes of the meeting shall be kept and the decision of the tribunal recorded therein.

Tribunal to determine its own procedure in certain matters

11. In matters of procedure not governed by these rules or the Act, the Tribunal may determine its own procedure.

Copies of documents admissible

12. Save where the Tribunal in any particular case otherwise directs or where a party to the appeal objects, copies of documents shall be admissible in evidence but the tribunal may at any time direct that the original shall be produced notwithstanding that a copy has already been admitted in evidence.

Fees and Costs

13. No fees shall be payable and a Tribunal shall not make any order as to costs on an appeal save where the grounds of appeal are held by the Tribunal to be frivolous, in which case the Tribunal may order the appellant to pay costs to the Commissioner of a sum not exceeding five thousand shillings.
